Papists was mere clerical
at a bill upon brought in to

t into the bill s, which being enant came to sending a mes-

the Commons.
53 bills returned
llowing.
ce of justice, by ns and poor per ng on trials.
f Papists.
bill for register.

adjourned to the

OMMONS

lay 4
t pursuant to ad-
ges were received y had agreed to the t up by the Come mentioned). Af-having delivered a
the Lord Lieutenant ce in the House of
d the House accord-the royal assent was recited in this paper.
motion was made that
to Monday 3 weeks,

lfer Burgh coincided in djournment, in order to ermination of the Eng
ct to the claim made by his kingdom, for a decla
more especially he said,
noured, that a hesitation
granting those privileges.
eneral, after adverting to of his own fortune, and espect to this country, in paltry office he held; said rishman, as a member of nd as King's Attorney Ge at no power on earth had a s for this nation, but the
and Commons of Ireland.
the 27th inst.

etter from London, May 2.
ng Mr. Potter, the messen
h dispatches for the court of be relative to a peace with fos is to sail immediately for a large fleet, after the in ord Chatham, to demand a swer from the Dutch."

eman just arrived from London
t two Cabinet Councils have affairs of Ireland, and that their s is said to be nearly as follows:
modification of Poyning's law;
e privilege of appeals to the Irish reumscribe the duration of the from session to session as in Eng-by no means to repeal the act of I, that asserts the legislative pow-
British Parliament over Ireland;
Irish Parliament does not acquisce, and gratefully receive such cons on the part of Britain, to pro-mediately.
port of the dissolution of the preament again begins to be very ge-elieved. Our friends in England be rid of them, soon as possible, as lly say they are grown not only NABLE but also UNGOVERNABLE.
oo plain the British Ministry are ini-
o our demands, and mean to amuse
h languid negotiation, until the Bri
d Irish Parliament shall have ended ession, in hope that before the next g of the Irish Parliament, either to majorities in the Houses who will se-of temporizing expedients, or, that n by a peace being disembarrassed from reign enemies, may with the iron hand wer for ever rivet the fetters on this na-esterday the Right Hon. Wm. Eden with Lady and family, sailed in the Dorset

t, for Parkgate.
lonmel, May 6 Last Friday, at noon,
ick Meagher, a Leinster woolcomber,
was brought here to work in consequence the late combination among the journey-n of that trade, was inveigled by one of m, under pretence of treating him to a t of ale, to go down Jail-street, where he s attacked by four confederates, who ocked him down, inhumanly kicked and ampled on his body, so that he now lies in dangerous situation, and would have been urdered, but for the interposition of Lieut.
Thomas of the 67 th regiment, and Cornet
Martin of the 12th dragoons, quartered here who rescued him out of their hands, and lodged two of the offenders in jail.
Married, Hamilton Lowe, of Brookhill,

At a Meeting of Delegates from Eight of the Volunteer Corps of the Province of Munster, at Mallow, the 2d of May, 1782.

Colonel STAWELL in the Chair.

A Committee being chosen for the purpose of forming Resolutions, the following were Reported and UNANIMOUSLY agreed to.

Lord KINGSBOROUGH, Chairman of the Committee.

Resolved unanimously, That the RESOLUTIONS of the Volunteer Delegates assembled at Dungannon, express with Spirit and Truth the RIGHTS and GRIEVANCES of this Kingdom; We therefore most cordially accede to them.

Resolved unanimously, That We are determined with our Lives and Fortunes to support our Houses of Parliament in their late virtuous Efforts to establish the RIGHTS and PRIVILEGES of this Realm.

Resolved unanimously, That it is the earnest Wish, and it must ever be the Glory of IRISHMEN to be connected with GREAT BRITAIN by Friendship never to be broken; by Affections never to be changed; by Interests never to be separated; but We conceive a mutual Enjoyment of equal Privileges (being united under the same Sovereign, yet governed by distinct and independent Legislatures) can alone establish such Friendship, such Affections, such Interests.

Resolved unanimously, That We have the most ardent Hope that the Administration of IRELAND will adopt that Plan of Retrenchment which Ministers have declared their Intention of forming in ENGLAND; and We rejoice at the Idea of "weeding Corruption from the Land" a system much to be wished for in this Kingdom, where We have seen the most prostitute Characters hold the most honourable and lucrative Employments.

Resolved unanimously, That when the Rights of this Realm shall be universally acknowledged, it will be the indispensible Duty of every Irishman to guard the constitution against future violation; and as the infamous doctrine of Power conferring Right hath been asserted, We therefore pledge ourselves, and conjure our Brethren Volunteers, not to relinquish or slacken in the use of Arms, as the best means to Repel any attempt of lawless power, to guard against Invasion, assist our sister kingdom, and enforce the just execution of laws.

Resolved unanimously, That a Committee of Correspondence, consisting of thirty six members, be elected, (seven to be a quorum) to meet and consult with the other Delegates of the kingdom:

Resolved unanimously, That no member of either House of Parliament, who hath in or out of Parliament, or by any other means opposed a DECLARATION of RIGHTS for this Kingdom, shall be eligible as a COMMITTEE MAN.

The Committee was formed of the following persons,

County of Cork.

James Bernard, Esq.
Colonel Francis Bernard.
Lord Viscount Kingsborough.
Sir John Conway Colthurst, Bart.

County of the City of Cork.

Colonel Bagwell.
Colonel Barefield.
Richard Moore, Esq.
Richard Fitton, Esq.

County of Limerick.

Colonel Massey.
Colonel Croker.
Colonel Ryves.
Colonel Monsell.

County of the City of Limerick.

Colonel Smyth.
Colonel Prendergast.
Colonel Harte.
Major Powell.

County of Waterford.

John Congreve, Esq.
Colonel Kean.
Captain Mulgrave.
Captain Shee.

County of the City of Waterford.

Robert Shapland Carew, Esq.
Cornelius Bolton, Esq.
Henry Alcock, Esq.
Hannibal William Dobbyn, Esq.

County of Kerry.

Colonel Sir Barry Denny, Bart.
Colonel Arthur Blennerhassett.
Major Godfrey.
Colonel Gun.

County of Tipperary.

Colonel Prittie.
Edward Moore, Esq.
Samuel Jacob, Esq.
Samuel Allen, Esq.

County of Clare.

Not yet returned.

Resolved unanimously, That as we wish to see all the Spirit, the Virtue, and the Strength of the Nation united in the support and defence of the just RIGHTS and CONSTITUTION of IRELAND, respectable Men, of every Religious Denomination, be admissible, by Ballot (as usual) into the Volunteer Corps of this Province.

this Meeting be presented to Colonel GRATTAN, for his unwearied Attention to the Interest of Ireland; and from whose Exertions, assisted by the Volunteers, and People in general, this Kingdom is likely to derive great and lasting Advantages.

Resolved unanimously, That the following Address be presented to Colonel HENRY Grattan:

"SIR,

"A Nation, for Ages despoiled of her "Liberty, considers you as the Assertor of "that Blessing, without the Enjoyment of "which, Riches cease to be Wealth, and "Peace to be Tranquility.—Look into your-"self,—revolve in your Mind, that you have "made your Country FREE!—Your own "Sensations must be superior to all the "Thanks We can Express."

Resolved unanimously, That the Volunteer Corps and Inhabitants of Mallow merit the Thanks of this Meeting, for their Attention, and for their polite and hospitable Behaviour.

Resolved unanimously, That the Commanders of the several VOLUNTEER CORPS of this Province, do return (upon Honour) to the Chairman, the date of their first Association in arms.

Resolved unanimously, That the Proceedings of this Meeting be published in the Dublin, Belfast, Cork, Clare, Limerick, Kerry, and Waterford Newspapers.

Resolved unanimously, That the Thanks of this Meeting be given to HENRY NEWSOM, Esq; for his proper Conduct as Secretary.

Resolved unanimously, That this Meeting be adjourned until such Time as the Answers to the Addresses of our PARLIAMENT be received, as We are at this Time uncertain what Measures may be proper for IRISHMEN to adopt: and that then, and on every other great National Occasion, our Committee of Correspondence be impowered, and are requested to call a Meeting of the Delegates of this Province.

SAMPSON STAWELL, Chairman.

The Chairman having quitted the Chair,

Resolved unanimously, That the Thanks of this Meeting be presented to Colonel STAWELL, for the propriety of his Conduct in the Chair.

In Committee, the Chairman having quitted the Chair.

Resolved unanimously, That the Thanks of this Committee be given to Lord Viscount KINGSBOROUGH, for the propriety of his Conduct in the Chair; and we reflect with Pleasure, on his patriotic Conduct in Parliament.

HENRY NEWSOM,
Secretary to the Munster Delegates

LIMERICK.

Monday next the 13th Inst. is the Day fixed on for the second meeting of the Delegates at the Exchange, and not the 15th as mentioned in this paper.

The Act for the further Relief of the Roman Catholics, price 3d. to be had at the Printer's.

DIED. This morning sincerely regretted, Mrs. O'Brien, Relict of the late Mr. Morgan O'Brien, Merchant.

MR. HARGROVE, DENTIST,

☞ On Account of many Applications from the County of Tipperary, purposes going there the 13th Inst. and gives this Notice, lest any Lady or Gentleman in the Country would Wish to Consult Him, and be Disappointed during his Absence.

May 6, 1782.

 WANTED an HORSE, fit to Carry a LADY; Apply to the Printer hereof.

DUNDRUM, near CASHELL.

THE Bakewell Bull, Imported by Sir CORNWALLIS MAUDE, Bart. will be Let to Cows this Season, at Three Guineas each.

The English Bull imported by Mr. JOHNSON, will be Let to Cows this Season, at Half a Guinea each Cow.

LITTLE DAVID, a most Remarkable well Shaped, and fine Coloured, thoroughly Bred, WELSH HORSE, equal to Carry Twenty Stone on the Road, to Cover this Season, [illegible] nea, and a Shilling to the Groom, [illegible] be paid before He is let out. [illegible] markably Strong and Active, [illegible] the most Useful Horses for [illegible] Traveller.

Good Grass to be had [illegible]

FRANCES LE[illegible]

Opposite the Exchange, [illegible]

RESPECTFULLY are [illegible] by the Assistance [illegible] enabled to re-commence [illegible] and has now for S[illegible] of her o[illegible] superior [illegible] humbly [illegible] Countrymen [illegible] will make [illegible] fair Pr[illegible] tentiously [illegible]

N.B. [illegible] Cocked [illegible]

Thomas Roche, Merchant, Plaintiff.
James Browne, Merchant Defendant.

John Bourke, Plaintiff.
James Browne, Merchant, Defendant.

} Hundred and Twenty Six Pounds, Four Shillings and five Pence, Sterling.

I will on Monday the 20th Inst. at St. Francis's Abbey, County Limerick, set up and sell by Public Cant to the highest and fairest Bidder, for ready Money, the Defendant's Interest in the Lands of Knockany and Friarstown, situate lying and being in the County of Limerick. Dated this 9th Day of May, 1782.

JOHN FITZGIBBON, Sheriff.

WHEREAS a barbarous Murder was committed at the Fair of Croagh, on the 1th of May last, upon JOHN RIEDY, late of Clonshire, in the County of Limerick, Yeoman, by one James Harragan, son of Patrick Harragan of Sheanbraige, in the Barony of Kerry, aided by Philip Carrol, heretofore a Schoolmaster in Croagh, in said County; and as both the above recited Murderers have fled from Justice, this Notice is addressed to the Publick, and particularly to the Members of the respectable Volunteer Corps in any County where these Miscreants might endeavour to conceal themselves, in Order that they may be Apprehended and brought to condign Punishment, and if any Person will give Intelligence to any Magistrate or Commander of any Volunteer Corps, where either of those Villains may be found, so as to be taken, such Informant shall, without [illegible] Trouble (upon producing a Certificate from [illegible] Gentleman who shall Attest such Service) be entitled to a very Considerable Reward, which [illegible] be Offered next Post in the Publick Papers. It is humbly Requested by the Friends of the Deceased, that such Gentlemen as live contiguous to the River Shannon, will Cause an Enquiry to be made among the Shipping now in the River, as it is Suspected that they have Entered or Offered themselves on Board.

N. B. Said Harragan seemed to be about Twenty-three Years of Age, about Five Feet, Eight Inches high, of thin Stature, black long Hair, generally in a Queue, a pale freckled Face, with black Eyes and heavy Eye-brows. Carrol is about Thirty-five Years, Five Feet Nine Inches high, red Hair, grey Eyes, and red heavy Eye-brows, a florid Complexion, thick Lips, bottle Nosed, a funky Voice, bald Utterance, strong Built, round Shouldered, and heavy Legged Fellow; absconded in a grey Frize Coat, with black Holes and Buttons, red Waistcoat, and Frize Breeches.

Croagh, May 8, 1782.

STOLEN from out of the Stable of John Ryan at Clarktown, within two Miles of Tipperary on Sunday Night the 5th of May Inst. a BLACK MARE, Six Years old, with a full Star, her hind Fetlocks white, bob-Tailed, and between 14 and 15 Hands high, the property of said Ryan. I will Pay a Reward of THREE GUINEAS for apprehending and Prosecuting the Thief to Conviction, or Half a Guinea for the Mare.

Mount Bruce, May 9, 1782.

EDMOND DOGHERTY.

MR. FRENCH will Dispose of his Interest in ERRINAGH, his Health not permitting him to keep it; there is a Melon-Stove newly built and planted for the Season, and every thing in compleat Order, for the Reception of a Gentleman's Family; the Tenant may have immediate Possession, and can be accommodated with the Stock, a quantity of Potatoes, Turf, Cyder, and the Household Furniture at a Fair Valuation. If Mr. FRENCH does not dispose of his Interest by the 30th Inst. he will Sett the House Ready Furnished, and the Garden, with many other Conveniences, for the Summer Season. Proposals to be made to JAMES GRANT, Esq. Limerick.

May 6, 1782.

N. B. ERRINAGH is pleasantly situated on the Banks of the Shannon, immediately opposite Castle Connell Spa.

URIEL HAR[illegible]

BOOT and SHOEMAKER,

Almost opposite O[illegible] LIMERICK.

BEGS leave to [illegible] ON [illegible] his [illegible] and the Pub[illegible] from Dublin, [illegible] London [illegible] fleet over [illegible] Ireland [illegible] Low Q. Be[illegible] Holy fleet [illegible] and force of [illegible] tended to [illegible] from the [illegible] keep were [illegible] the [illegible]