ave been glad at Britain this nomy brought ntleman is can-ne did, I know
be glad, how-y, and hear his
inting a supply,
e has nothing of
ace that does it Gentleman will y communicating ll then vote with

The Hon Gentle-
pait, that I cannot

ctly either in pub-fore, and now I
o make every pos-

is night, and men-Administration had
did, I can find no
e regulations in the praise is due. I ome capital reduc-extraordinaries of

less than six thou-
time of war, surely too many.

l. "This is the third in favour of a Ree last debate on the Gentleman [Mr Pel-
every practicable re-assistance of the
ely he cannot want nly express his wish
not refuse him.
gh he would go with ction, yet he wished was not kept up, but which might on an
As to our keeping up in; supposing we had
with her, surely her
the greatest States in eaply purchased with

, the pay of the sol-
throughout the country,

e against the amend-
was a corps that demand-
was the corps of pensi-

spoke against the ae were running the race

d, whatever the circum-
ight have been formerly ding army, to repel a prevent the rising of our e enemy, no such thing ended, for upon the late at there was a landing of
were very much terrified,
all the refreshment they march.
spoke in favour of the posed a scheme of reaff.
ELL contended that the
cers was less now than in pact was made for five there were now only four,
was no army of 10,000
so few.
clared it was repugnant to eep up a standing army in it was never attempted to gland by the most daring retence of necessity; and Administration, who profesdesign to practice it.
as then put on the Amend-

34
108

arge establishment 74
STON reported from the Se-ominated for the [illegible] of the iswarlin was duly elected to y of Down."

n. Edward Ward, was duly t the county of Down."
duct of Richard Ansley, Esq;
the County of Down, was mpartial."
ition of the Rt. Hon Robert ers, complaing of an undue ounded, vexatious and frivo-

SON moved, "That the Rt.

Roman Catholic Peer relative to that description of men, communicated to him through an Honourable Friend (Sir Boyle Roche)—that the tendency and purport of said message had been greatly misrepresented—that we should act consistently—that the eyes not only of this country, but of all Europe were fixed on our proceedings; he then moved, that Sir Boyle Roche, Bart. have leave to explain his former message, and on the question being put leave was given.

Sir Boyle said, that having heard that it was intended to be moved at that assembly, that the Roman Catholics should be admitted to share in the legislature by a participation of the right of voting for members of Parliament, he was come on the part of Lord Kenmare and other particular friends of the same persuasion, to disavow, on their part any wish of being concerned in the business of elections; at the same time they desired to return thanks to those Gentlemen who intended to have interested themselves in their behalf; but fully sensible of the favours which had been already bestowed on them by Parliament, their only desire, at this time, was to enjoy them in peace, without seeking in the present distracted state of affairs, to raise jealousies and farther embarrass the nation by asking for new ones."

Right Rev. Earl of Bristol—said he had a paper to submit to the consideration of the Convention, which was of the highest consequence, it respected a class of men whose claims required the most serious attention; men who were deserving of enjoying every privilege in common with the rest of their fellow subjects, he need [illegible] mention that it was the Roman Catholics of Ireland, he alluded to; he then moved that the paper be read, which was to the following effect:

"At a meeting of the General Committee of the Roman Catholics of Ireland, Sir Patrick Bellew, Bart. in the chair, it was unanimously resolved, That the message relating to us, delivered this morning to the National Convention, was totally unknown to and unauthorised by us.

"That we do not so widely differ from the rest of mankind, as, by our own act, to prevent the removal of our shackles.

"That we will receive with gratitude every indulgence that may be extended to us by the Legislature, and are thankful to our benevolent countrymen for their generous efforts in our behalf.

"Resolved, That Sir Patrick Bellew be requested to present the foregoing resolutions to the Earl of Bristol, as the act of the Roman Catholics of Ireland, and entreat that his Lordship will be pleased to communicate them to the National Convention." Ordered to lie on the table.

It was moved that the paper produced by Sir Boyle Roche, Bart. be printed.

Right Rev. Earl Bristol, also moved that the resolutions, which he had presented should be likewise printed. Ordered accordingly.

Counsellor Morris was of opinion that as these two papers mitigated against each other, they should be referred to the Select Committee.

Mr. Bousfield said, it was of the greatest consequence that these papers should be taken into consideration. Two millions of people looked up to you for your intervention. The rights of nations, and of every man, were interested. The Roman Catholics were not to be compared to the Capadocians, who prayed for slavery.

Counsellor Morris. The business we have assembled for is of the greatest magnitude; and requires the fullest information that possibly can be had. The Committee of the Munster Delegates had opened a correspondence with some of the most distinguished characters in either kingdoms, for the purpose of getting information on a question that is to settle the constitution of this country, not for a day, but for ages. It was allowed that all the papers necessary on this head were not brought forward, and that though a select Committee was appointed, yet every individual of that assembly, and he hoped they would attend to it, had a right to deliver his sentiments on the report of that Committee. [He was called to order by the Earl of Bristol, who said there was no question before them.] Counsellor Morris then moved, that the Chairman and Secretary of Correspondence, for the province of Ulster, do produce all such papers and information as they have received on the subject of a Parliamentary Reform, and that such papers do lie on the table.

Mr. Newport was against bringing forward any letters, except of consequence. Why overburthen this Convention with papers, if they can throw no new light on the subject?

Mr. Hacket observed, that much time had peared, that body of men before [illegible] barrass the present measures [illegible]

Mr. Medium. I am for an [illegible] order to give time to the Roman [illegible] come to an ultimate determination [illegible]

Several other Gentlemen spoke [illegible] subject; after which the Convention [illegible] to Friday next the 21st Inst.

Yesterday the Rev. Arthur O'Leary [illegible] lain to the Irish Brigade) appeared [illegible] tional Convention of Delegates; on [illegible] ring the Rotunda gateway, the Gentlemen [illegible] the Volunteer guard received him under [illegible] salute of reversed arms, and every tribute [illegible] honour that could shew respect for such a distinguished venerable character, who by his philosophical writings has so much reconciled and united the people of this Kingdom.

Kilkenny, Nov. 14. On Tuesday night last, Mr. Charles Treight, of this city, being on his return from Ballyragget, was suddenly attacked (about a mile from that town, on the Freighters road) by two fellows, who pulled him from his horse, and robbed him of a guinea and 30s. one of the fellows was armed with a firelock, and the other with a pistol and sword.

On Thursday the remains of Timothy Cooke [illegible] a member of the Kilkenny Independ[illegible] were interred in St. Canice's churchyard, with military honours; at which all the Volunteers corps of this city attended, as a testimony of their affection for a Gentleman of the most engaging and amiable manners and strictest integrity.

Married. A few days ago, Mr. John Davis, to Miss Smyth, both of Borris in-Ossory, in the Queen's County.

Cork, Nov. 13. Last Monday night between eight and nine o'Clock Mr. William O'Brien walking through Knocker's-hole, was stopped by two footpads, one of whom seized his watch, but Mr. O'Brien held the chain which in the struggle remained with him, during which time the other rifled his pockets of about ten shillings. At a distance stood a third person, supposed to have been employed in the Slaughter Houses, having his legs ornamented with guts, holding a large knife in his hand, and threatening immediate destruction to Mr. O'Brien if he stirred or made the least noise.

Married. This day, John Hanning, Esq; of Cloyne, to Miss Hayes, daughter to Atwell Hayes Esq; of this City.

LIMERICK.

Extract of a Letter from Portsmouth dated Nov. 5.

"The 29th ult. the 27th Regiment of Foot, commanded by General Maffy arrived here from the West Indies; this Regiment with the 10th Foot are under orders for embarkation for Ireland—The 68th Regiment which since their arrival from Ireland, are quartered at Hilsey Barracks, have received orders to hold themselves in readiness to sail for Jersey and Guernsey."

On the fifth of July last died, in Philadelphia, Sharp Delany, Esq; several years a member of the American Congress—He was a native of this kingdom, and formerly resided in the Queen's County.

A few days ago, died at Shrewsbury, England, John Goold Esq; of the City of Cork.

Married. Yesterday Michael Cudmore, Esq; to the agreeable Miss Sexton, daughter of the late Mr. Joseph Sexton, with a large fortune ☞ £ 10,000.

REAL BANK SECURITY.

THOMAS WALKER,

At the Old Established State Lottery Office,

No. 79. Dame-street, Dublin.

Ever grateful for past Favours, and willing to render his good Friends, the Public, an ADEQUATE and PROPER SECURITY for the Confidence reposed in him, has lodged in the

BANK OF IRELAND,

TEN THOUSAND POUNDS STERLING

Independent of any other Fund, as an additional Security for the Payment of Prizes arising from Tickets in the

PRESENT STATE LOTTERY,

Signed and Sold by Him,

Which Sum he pledges himself to the Public shall remain in said Bank during one Year from the Date hereof, for the Use and Satisfaction of all whom it may concern. Nov. 12, 1783.

☞ The few remaining (WALKER'S) Tickets are now selling CHEAP without Reference.

 Be particular to enquire for No. 79, Dame-street, where Schemes of the Lottery, and every useful Information may be had.—Also at the OFFICES of ANDREW WATSON, Messrs. FERRAR & ALLEY, and Messrs. CROWE'S, LIMERICK, where (only) WALKER'S Tickets are now Selling.

TO LET

FROM the [illegible] STOC. Limer[illegible] N. B. Tail[illegible] sed on [illegible] not [illegible] MEA[illegible]

LEGA[illegible]

To Be SET,

From the First Day of May next,

For any Term may be Agreed on,

THE LANDS of ARDANE, Containing a large Tract of Ground, and circumstanced in all respects to answer every purpose can be required, situated in the County of Tipperary, and central to the principal Towns. Likewise to be Set at the same Period Two small Denominations of the Lands of ROSSADRIHID and COOLWORTH, all Part of the Estate of LOVETT ASHE, Esq; by whom Proposals will be Received Directed to the Care of the Post Master Limerick.

Proper Encouragement will be given to Resident Tenants, and no Preference promised. Application to WILLIAM BAKER, Esq; of Ann Brook. The Lands may be viewed who lives just near them. Oct. 17.

JUST LANDED

By Thomas Mark,

TWENTY PUNCHEONS of JAMAICA RUM, remarkably well Flavoured and Strong; also some English REFINED SUGARS. He has also for Sale a good Assortment of HYSON, BLOOM, PEKOE, CONGO, GREEN and BOHEA TEAS.

Limerick, Nov. 13. 1783.

BENJAMIN UNTHANK,

Creagh Lane, LIMERICK.

ACQUAINTS his Friends and the Publick, he has laid in an Assortment of Goods in the GROCERY Line, and Requests their Countenance, which he will Study to Merit, by having each Article of the Best Quality, and will Sell at the Smallest Profit for Ready Money.

N. B. Said Unthank, continues to Manufacture SLATE BLUE, and HAIR POWDER, as usual. Nov. 10, 1783.

A FIELD of upwards of Six Acres of Choice AFTER GRASS, at Mr. Kingrose's, Rathbane, to be Set immediately; a Lease will be given for any Term that may be agreed on.—Proposals to be received by Mr. EAGLE, Change-lane. Nov. 10, 1783.

TO BE LET

For such Term as shall be agreed on,

THE VICARIAL TYTHES, of the Parishes of Cahirconlish, Cahirelly, and Luddenbeg, and the Entire TYTHES of the Parish of Carrigparson. Application to be made, to the Rev. GEORGE BAKER, Tipperary. Oct. 19, 1783.

Choice Wrapper Tobacco,

NOW Landing from on Board the Fortunate, Capt. HAYDON, from VIRGINIA, to be Sold by REUBEN HARVEY, Cork. October 22, 1783.

The ASSIZE of BREAD.

By order of the Worshipful ALEX. FRANKLIN, Esq; Mayor, this 13th of Nov. Middle price of Wheat, 2l. 5s. per Quarter allowance to the Bake, 8s. per Quarter for Wheaten.

Wheaten Loaf	lb.	oz.	dr	Household Loaf.	lb.	oz.	dr
Two-penny	1	5	0	Two-penny	1	12	0
Three-penny	1	15	1	Three-penny	2	10	0
Sixpenny	3	14	7	Six-penny	5	4	0

ALEXANDER FRANKLIN, MAYOR.