REPEAL OF DUTIES.

ROBERT REEVES,

GIVES NOTICE, that on FRIDAY next, the 10th inst. the Duty of 10 per Cent. ceases on all GOODS of English Manufacture—and begs respectfully to inform his Friends and the Public, that on that day he commences to sell conformably with the regulation, and will reduce his present Stock so as to meet the new Goods he will be continually getting in free of Duty.

N. B.—The Duty having been taken off ENGLISH MUSLINS three months back, he has been selling them accordingly, so that no reduction can be expected in them from his prices since that period.

ATLAS

Assurance Company,

ESTABLISHED ON THE EQUITABLE PLAN,

CAPITAL, £1,200,000, Sterling.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

☞ Fire Policies falling due the 29th Sept. inst. require to be Renewed within fifteen days after, otherwise they become void.

EVERY FIFTH Year the Assured WILL BE PAID a Return of the Premiums he has lodged with the Company, in proportion to the surplus Sum that may be in reserve, after payment of Losses.

The Return paid to Fire Policy Holders for the five years ending at Christmas, 1823.

WAS 25 PER CENT,

BEING

A BONUS OF ONE-FOURTH

Of the Premiums Deposited in that Period.

LIFE DEPARTMENT,

Every SEVENTH Year an ADDITION will be made to the sum assured by the Policy, on the principle so beneficially practised by the EQUITABLE OFFICE. Under this principle the sum to be paid under a Policy assuring £1,000 only, may become £1,500 or £2,000 payable without the payment of any extra Premium.

Note—The usual reference to Medical and other Friends will be dispensed with by the ATLAS, in cases where the parties may desire the same, when the life to be assured appears by any of the Committees of Proprietors in Ireland and is approved of by them.

The ATLAS was the first Company to permit persons whose lives are assured, to pass in decked vessels, whether propelled by steam or otherwise, between the British Isles, or to or from certain ports of the Continent.

ROYAL EXCHANGE

ASSURANCE,

Established by Royal Charter and Act of Parliament,

In the Year 1720,

FOR ASSURING BUILDINGS, GOODS, AND SHIPS

FROM FIRE,

AND ALSO FOR THE

ASSURANCE OF LIVES.

Office, No. 117, George's-street, Limerick:—

WHERE Assurance on Lives, and against Fire, can be sooner and easier effected than at any other Insurance Establishment in Ireland: Fire Policies are issued at once, without either sending for them to England, or consulting Directors, as must be done at other Offices; and Persons, whose lives are to be assured, have only to appear before the Agent; who does not require Medical Certificates.

Lives Insured as high as £10,000; and at the advanced age of Seventy-five years.

Persons whose lives are assured by this Company, are allowed to pass in decked vessels from one part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to another, and to and from the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark and Man, and also to pass, in time of peace only, in decked vessels, from British ports and places to any foreign port between Finshing and Ushant, without extra premium, and without being subjected to apply, as heretofore, to the Office, for special permission.

Manufactories, Buildings, and Goods of every description—Farm Houses, Cattle, and Huggarts—Ships in harbour, in dock, or while repairing, Insured at a moment's notice.

The following are some of the rates of Premiums on Assurance against Fire, viz.:—

Common Assurance ... ... 2s. per Cent;
Singly Hazardous ..... 3s. Ditto;
Doubly Hazardous ..... 5s. Ditto:—

The wealth and experience of this Company enable them to Insure Mills, and other special risks, at the safest and most moderate Premiums: Corn Stores, with one Kiln, containing stock consisting of Corn and Grain only, being but a Singly Hazardous Risk, are Insured at 3s. per cent. But Merchants who have been informed by Insurance Agents that this Singly Hazardous Premium will cover general Merchandize contained in Corn Stores with Kilns, ought to carefully examine their Policies, in order to ascertain if
