and informed me he had sunk the vere contest of two hours and a hting within small pistol shot.—
d receive no quarter, and at 8 gside the Barbara, though every aken to prevent her. The crew endeavoured to save the treasure, ported to be on board; there are
's crew on board the Queen as of them their leader; this is the aptured Lieutenant Maw, of the wounded him; he admits of his tellas, one of which he took poserrapore.

Piratical vessel was a gallivat of s, mounted three 12-pounders, ns, and was manned with 35 men
cluding the Serang, were killed;
d the plunder of several vessels,
,000 rupees, some bales of silk,
ing apparel, and various other

, Calicut Roads, April 2, 1806.
here to-day with the sea breeze,
ithin a cable's length of the Mar-and waited for the land wind to At midnight the Wellesley was be on fire, and we immediately ursting out at all her ways.
rant, his officers, and crew, had e their lives by getting on board
hey now are. Fortunately no
How the fire arose I have not the fire began, the Wellesley was us, which prevented our getting ove from her anchors in two hours ing out to sea, burning most fut awful spectacle I ever witnessed.

blown up, and is now so far off,
ir receiving any damage from that

NDON, Nov. 22.

nfidently said, that Vera Cruz is of the expedition, which sailed a under General Crauford; and then General Crauford has reached his shall have ten thousand men in a force amply sufficient to secure
of that invaluable conquest.
ed yesterday, that Parliament will
the 27th of January.

yet arrived from the Continent.—
d has been so unfavourable, that dly be expected. But a Gentle-rrived from Paris thro' Normandy, ore he left that capital, which was the news had arrived there, and in the Moniteur, that Prince Ho-en obliged to capitulate with fifteen under his command. That such actually appeared in the Moniteur doubt. It perfectly corresponds gence in the last Hamburgh Papers, letters, that the retreat of Prince been cut off, and that he had surrender. Indeed, from the pospective armies, it appeared next e should escape.

true, therefore, that Prince Ho-
en taken prisoner with the corps, an troops behind the Oder must be rmy of Reserve, under Prince Eutings Indiaman, lately captured near the Cape of Good Hope, has been carried into the Isles of France, as no account had been received at the Cape of her recapture when the brig sailed (18th September.)

A fleet of transports, with three men of war, sailed from the Cape, on the 13th September, supposed to be bound for Buenos Ayres.

The following ships from Madras and Bombay had arrived at Bengal, and intended to wait there the arrival of the ships from Penang, before they took their departure for England, which would be about the latter end of September.

Phœnix	Capt. Ramsden
Tigress	—— Graham
Preston	—— Sturrock
Sarah Christiana	—— Makeson
Ann	—— Masson
Diana	—— Eckford
Glory	—— Beevor
Union	—— Young
Northampton	—— Barker.

The Calcutta, Captain Reddie, was in Dock at Bengal on the 1st July, to repair.

The Comet, Moring, and Jane Duchess of Gordon, Cameron, arrived at Bengal from Madras—the former on the 14th, the latter on the 21st June.

Ships arrived at Madras, viz.—

William Pitt	Capt. Edmeades
Europe	—— Gelsson
Streatham	—— Dale.

The Albion, Richardson, on her arrival at Bengal, from Prince of Wales Island, was to be dispatched for China.

Letters from Guernsey and Jersey state, that some accounts had been received from the French coast, by which it appears that a great draught of troops had been recently made from all the garrisons, the place of which had every where been supplied with conscripts of the last requisition.

State of the poll on Saturday for Middlesex:

William Mellish, Esq.	2792
George Byng, Esq.	2074
Sir Francis Burdett,	748

At a recent election, one prudent constituent, who scorned to take a bribe for his vote to any one, is said to have accepted 100*l.* for getting out of the way and voting for nobody.

DUBLIN—November 26.

Lord Roden has been invested by his Grace the Duke of Bedford with the Blue Ribbon, vacant by the death of the Earl of Clermont.

On Saturday last, a duel took place at Sallins, between Lieut. W———n, of the garrison, and Mr. H———t, of Dorset-street. In the second fire, the latter gentleman was shot in the right thigh. We are informed, that the difference between these gentlemen arose from some trifling altercation about a dog.

County Dublin Election.—State of the poll yesterday—Mr. Hamilton 465—Mr. Falkiner 388—Mr. White 319.

County Fermanagh Election.—At the close of the poll on Saturday last the numbers were:—

General Cole	1311	Mr. H. Brooke	583
General Archdall	1162	Mr. R. Brooke	398

County Londonderry Election.—At the close of the poll on Friday the numbers were:—

General Stewart	576	Colonel Ponsonby	437
Lord G. Beresford	419	Mr. Lyle	238

and such warm dry clothing as could be suddenly procured put on; he then had him carried to a neighbouring house, where, after about an half hour's application of the necessary means used by the Doctor, the poor man was restored to life.

The Wickham and Ross cruizers have arrived in Lamlash harbour with the smuggling cutter, the Flirt of Dover, which they captured on the morning of the 16th, near the Craig of Elsa.—The Flirt had sailed from Guernsey with a cargo of tobacco, and had landed one half of it on the coast of Ireland; there still remain 3000*l.* worth on board her.

Last week 23 vessels from different Irish ports arrived at Liverpool. With the general merchandize exported from this kingdom were 180 sheep, 66 cows, and 80 pigs, from Dundalk.

Wednesday, Lieutenant General Floyd arrived in this city, invested with the command of this district.

County Galway Election.—State of the poll on Monday:—Right Hon. D. B. Daly 502—Mr. Eyre 332—Mr. Martin 287.

List of Fairs in the Counties of Limerick, Clare, Tipperary, and Kerry, in the ensuing Month.

COUNTY LIMERICK.

Castletownmackenirry, and Glin, 1st; Ballingarry and Cahirconlish 5th; Mount Pelier and Croom 8th; Singland 11th; Almer 11th & 12th; Turagh 12th; Dromin 14th: Portrenard 15th; Knockaderry 19th; Kilfennycommon 21st & 22d; Kilmore 27th; Kilmiddy 31st.

COUNTY CLARE.

Ballyket 1st; Kilclaran 2d; Clonroad 3d; Six-mile-bridge 5th; Turlaghmore 12th; Doonbeg 16th; Enagh 17th; Newmarket 20th; Kilkishen 22d.

COUNTY TIPPERARY.

Cloghjordan 1st; Mullinhone and Ballishane 4th; Graystown 6th; Templemore and Cahir 7th; Tipperary and Clogheen 10th; Ballingary 11th; Cloheen 12th; Burriskedn, Golden, and New-Birmingham 15th; Ballipooreen 17th; Cappagh and Thurles 21st.

COUNTY KERRY.

Ballicleave and Montanagee 1st; Droumirourk 5th and 6th; Tarbert 11th; Milltown 15th and 16th; Scortagliny 16th & 17th; Kilgobnet 21st.

BIRTH.

Tuesday morning, at his house in Thomas-street, the Lady of Alderman Ralph Westropp, of a Son.

At her apartments in College-Green, Dublin, the Lady of Richard Martin, Esq. of Galway, of a daughter.

MARRIED.

Last night, Mr. Thomas Quinlan, coach-maker, to Miss M'Sweeney, of Bridge-street.

This morning, William Lane, Esq. of the North Strand, to the amiable Miss Walplate, of Mary-street.

On the 23d instant, Mr. Montgomery, apothecary, to the amiable Miss Higginson, both of Carlow.

DIED.

This morning, in Nelson-street, Mrs. Barrett, wife to Oliver Barrett, Esq.—her death is sincerely lamented by her family and acquaintance.

On the 9th inst. in Gardiner's-row, Dublin, Mrs Jenkins, wife to Lieutenant Jenkins, North Cork Militia.

At Edinburgh, on the 10th instant, Sir William Forbes. He was one of the earliest members of the celebrated Literary Club, which boasted, amongst its other illustrious associates, the names of Johnson, Reynolds, Garrick, and Burke. He survived many of these eminent men, and, we believe, has left few of the original members behind him.

LIMERICK PRICE OF NEW BUTTER.

88s. ....84s. ....74s. ....Firkins,
86s. ....82s. ....72s. ....Tubs.
Rapeseed.....21s. per barrel.