Dun—On Wednesday last, at his house in King-street, Cork, of fever, John Cremen, Esq. brother-in law of J. Fitz-Gerald, Esq. of this City. The affliction of this Gentleman's surviving family, consisting of several children, is now rendered complete, their other parent having fallen a victim, a few weeks ago, to the same malevolent disease. Mr. Cremen was deservedly respected by a numerous circle of friends and acquaintance—Robert Cooke, Esq. of Rossina, Queen's Co.—On Thursday last, in Merrion-square, Dublin, aged 87, the Right Hon. Sackville Hamilton, formerly Secretary to a Lord Lieutenant, and latterly Chairman to the Directors General of Inland Navigation; a Gentleman most sincerely lamented—On Monday, at her house in Catherine-street, after a few hours illness, by inflammation, Mrs. Rumley, daughter of the late Alderman Barrett, and widow of Lieut Rumley, who was killed at the head of the Grenadier Company of the City Limerick regt. at the battle of Colooney. By her premature death, her three children are left without parental protection, and her immediate connexions of a sincere disinterested friend—At the Convent, Broad-lane Cork, the Rev. Laurence Callanan—In Sackville-street, Dublin, aged 78, the relict of Colonel Achmuty, of Crusetown, Co. Meath—At Haslewood, near Sligo. the Hon. Lowry Balfour Cole, youngest son of the Right Hon. the Earl of Enniskillen—In London, of fever, C. Kirkpatrick, Esq. of the Isle of Wight—At Bristol, John Cockburn, Esq. formerly Governor of Tantumquary, on the coast of Africa—In Clare-street, Dublin, Charles Alexander Taylor, Esq.—At Beatley Priory, Middlesex, John James Hamilton, Marquis of Abercorn, Viscount Hamilton, Governor of the Counties of Donegal and Tyrone, a Privy Councillor, Earl of Abercorn in Scotland, and Viscount Strabane, in Ireland—In Ennis, of typhus fever, the daughter of Mr. James Griffin—Nathan Peat, Esq. of Waterford—Ebenezer R. Rowe, Esq—At Dromore, Co. Kerry, of fever, John Mahony, Esq.—On Sunday, in Patrick-street Cork, Ann, daughter of the late Mr. G. Seymour—Yesterday, at Meelick, much lamented, Margaret, daughter of Mr. James Frost.

Dublin Markets.—Yesterday, we had the smallest Corn Market we remember for a long time back. The exporters of Oats advanced a shilling upon Wednesday's prices, and purchased good grain at 18s. and 19s.; fine feeding Oats went to 23s.; Oatmeal more inquired for prices 18s. to 24s.; Wheat 44s. to 56s; very scarce and in good demand at fully 2s. over last week's prices. Flour is also better, prime seconds 32s. to 34s.; inferior 30s. Barley steady, 20s. to 26s. for grinding. Malt 46s. to 50s. Whiskey very dull, at 11s. to 10s. 9d. On the whole the grain market had a strong tendency to advance.
