DIED—Of water in the chest, at Doneraile House, County Cork, on Monday evening last, while sitting in his chair, the Right Hon. Hayes St. Leger, Viscount Doneraile. His Lordship's character was excellent in every point; as a landlord he was inimitable. He enjoyed very extensive estates, particularly in the counties of Cork and Waterford. He was in his sixty-fifth year, having been born 9th March, 1755. He married, in 1785, Charlotte Bernard, sister of Francis, Earl of Bandon, by whom he has left a son, the Honourable Lieut.-Colonel Hayes St. Leger, of the South Cork Militia, who succeeds to the family titles and estates. He has likewise left two daughters. His paternal name was Aldworth; his grandfather, Richard Aldworth, of Newmarket, in the Co. Cork, Esq. having married Elizabeth, youngest daughter of Arthur St. Leger, who was created Viscount Doneraile in 1703. Hayes, fourth Viscount of Doneraile, brother of Elizabeth, died without issue in 1767, and the title became extinct. He was succeeded in his estates by St. Leger Aldworth, son of his sister Elizabeth; the nephew, on the death of the uncle, assumed the name and arms of St. Leger. July 2d, 1776, he was created Baron, and January 5th, 1785, Viscount Doneraile. He died May 15th, 1787, and was succeeded by his son Hayes, whose death we now announce. The present Viscount was born the 9th of May, 1786. His character is most favourably represented—At Poonah, in the East Indies, John Connellan, Esq. of Loughrea, Lieut. and Adjutant of the 1st Grenadier Regiment—In Anne-street, Dublin, Mrs. Harkness—At his brother's house, near Cork, James Shaw, Esq. of Lurgan, one of the Society of Friends—In North Cumberland-street, Dublin, aged 14, Catherine, third daughter of William Brooke, Esq. M. D.—Margaret, daughter of Mr. Patrick Gibbons, of South Great George's-street, Dublin—Suddenly, whilst attending Divine Service, at Mothfey Church, the Rev. Thomas Powell—In London, Lieut. John Stewart Brisbane, R. N.—Robert G. Waller, Esq. of the War Office—The wife of Captain Bishop, 40th Regiment—Mr. Boreham, one of the Constables of Saffron Walden. He was in pursuit of some delinquents in the vicinity, when he suddenly dropped down and expired—At Dominica, John Lowndes, Esq. Surveyor-General of that Island—In Clonmel, Mr. David Higgins, seedsman.
