under any House in this City, to prove which a single trial is solicited. This arrangement he hopes will ensure to him an increase of that Public support he has already experienced. Among his late supplies are a few Pieces extraordinary fine Black and Blue Cloths, sent particularly by the Manufacturer to prove the superiority of his make. Gentlemen who are particular are respectfully invited to inspect these Cloths.

Observe—The much approved system of asking but one Price, and which has been so unsuccessfully attempted by other Houses, is most strictly adhered to in this Establishment, the lowest selling price being marked on each article, precludes the possibility of keeping accounts.

Country Gentlemen favouring this Establishment with their orders, (naming price and colour,) if not executed to their satisfaction, the goods will be taken back, and their money returned.

AT a Meeting of the Parishioners of the Union of ABINGTON and TOUGH, duly convened at Vestry, the 16th day of December, 1822—

WALTER HUSSY BURGH, Esq. in the Chair.

Resolved unanimously—That our Chairman be requested to present the annexed address to the Rev. Dr. JEBB, upon his promotion to the See of Limerick:

REVEREND SIR,

The Parishioners of the Union of Abington and Tough, duly convened at vestry, have directed me to convey to you their unanimous sentiments upon that event which is soon to deprive us of a Rector, endeared to us during a long residence by all those qualities which secure to their possessor public admiration and private regard.

Deeply as we must all lament our loss there are moreover circumstances, Sir, which reconcile us to that separation, and forgetting our private feelings, we cannot but rejoice to see you raised by the wisdom of our Sovereign, to a more elevated station in the Church.

At a season when the Established Church has been assailed with a hardihood and malignancy beyond all example, when her enemies have dared, with unblushing audacity, to deny those claims which the evangelical soundness of her doctrines and the dignified purity of her ritual, justly confer on her the title of a "Catholic and Apostolic Church," we cannot but rejoice at the elevation to her episcopal bench of one so "able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayer," so competent to defend her interests from secret and insidious machinations, as well as from open violence, so eminently qualified to shed a lustre upon the highest order of her ministry, by the rare combination of profound learning, unassuming piety, "charity unfeigned," and bland dignity of manners.

Accept, therefore, Sir, our most cordial gratulations upon your promotion, and our sincere prayers, that the Author and Fountain of all good may enable you, in your more conspicuous station, to persevere in that truly christian course which has secured the permanent respect and won the affections of every individual in this Parish.

I have the honor to be,
Reverend Sir,
Your most obedient,
Humble Servant,
WALTER HUSSY BURGH.

Walter Hussy Burgh, Esq. having left the Chair, and John Evans, Esq. being called thereto, the thanks of the Meeting were unanimously voted to Walter Hussy Burgh, Esq. for his very proper conduct in the chair.
JOHN EVANS.

TO WALTER HUSSEY BURGH, ESQ.
Limerick, December 17, 1822.

MY DEAR SIR—Through you, as their Chairman at the late Vestry, I beg leave to return my sincere thanks to the Parishioners of Abington and Tough, for the expression of their sentiments, conveyed in your Letter, on the occasion of my appointment to the See of Limerick.

In the Parish of Abington a large portion of my life has been happily devoted to professional studies and employments; and at the close of a pastoral connection, which to me was a source of some anxiety and much enjoyment, it cannot fail to encourage me in the prosecution of similar but more extended objects, that in the judgment of my Parishioners, single integrity of purpose has counterbalanced the deficiencies of which I am deeply conscious.

The office to which I am called, arduous at all times, imposes, at the present time, a peculiar and most awful responsibility. From within and from without, the Church ...ious dangers; but the dangers from without ...ing than the dangers Roscrea, will, every ... off at Ten by the Clock of this Office, (and also from Dublin instead of Nine,) dine at the accustomed hour, and sleep at Montrath, and half-past Two, (instead of half-past Three) the following day arrive in Dublin; such acceleration being preparatory to performing the entire distance of about 120 English Miles in one day.

The acceleration of the MAIL and POST COACHES rendering it inexpedient to take by them the usual quantity of Luggage and Parcels, close Caravans are in preparation for their exclusive conveyance in posts of two days between this Office and the Mail Coach Office, Dawson-street, Dublin.
