8TH ROYAL IRISH HUSSARS.

Ennis, Sept. 1847.

WE, the Undersigned inhabitants of Ennis and its vicinity, cannot permit you and your brother officer, Lieut. TOMKINSON, to leave this quarter without expressing our sense of the courtesy and your admiration of the uniform urbanity, kindness, and courtesy evinced by you to all classes of the community, which have secured you the esteem and affection of all with whom you were brought in contact during your residence amongst us. We also with much pleasure revert to the sobriety, steadiness, and good conduct of the non-commissioned officers and privates under your command, during ten months residence in Billetts in this town, which have obtained for them the respect and esteem of all, and which we beg you will communicate to them. This might we take the liberty of saying was to a great measure brought about by your own unwearied activity and diligence in the discharge of your duties.

Assuring you, Sir, that to whatever quarter of the globe the service may call you, and your brother officer, you bear along with you our best wishes for your health, prosperity, and happiness.

We have the honor to be,

Your most obedient servants,

GENTLEMEN,

In behalf of my brother officer, Lieut. TOMKINSON, and myself, I beg to return you our most sincere thanks for the very kind and flattering address with which you have been pleased to present us.

We shall always remember the courteous and affectionate conduct of the Non-Commissioned Officers and men of my Troop, and in their name, as well as my own, beg to assure you how proud we feel in having carried away with us your esteem and good regard. It only remains for me to say that wherever our future lot may be cast, Ennis, and all the kindness there experienced at your hands, will ever be impressed in the memory of every one who composed the detachment.

With sincere wishes for your individual prosperity,

I remain,

Your obedient servant,

ALEXANDER LINDSAY,

Captain 8th Hussars.
