about half-past three o'clock in the , he met the defendants near Edenvale ; hem, White, had a rabbitt ; Harte had a nd Meehan a stick ; he asked where they rabbit and they told him they killed it on r's lands ; White told him afterwards it Wilson's lands they killed it. examined by Mr Lynch—It was going ey were when he met them ; he made s and found they had been on Mr Cul-ands ; he did not make any inquiries of lson ; he met young Cullinan, and he said hunting with them when they killed the ynch—I would ask you to adjourn the have Mrs Wilson here. case was accordingly adjourned for a nt.

UNSTAMPED MEASURES.

al traders of the town and Clare Castle ined from 10s 6d to 2s 6d for having und measures on their premises. other cases were unimportant. and the djourned for a fortnight.

THE JAP-CHINEE WAR.

s interesting letter to the Times yesterday g Captain Younghusband says that all ed to ensure facility for the Japanese vance on Pekin is a good supply of warm g for the troops. According to the last om the East the Japanese have made and proper provision for the bitter cold of uria, for the fur markets at Tientsin een visited by their agents for the past nths, and an enormous number of skins een purchased by them. The Japanese s, except those recruited from Yezo and rthern part of Japan, are little able to and severe cold; and the authorities have ell to remember that there is not much r dash to be expected from half-frozen

ESALE MURDERS OF CHILDREN IN RUSSIA.

St Petersburg, Friday.

evening papers announce that a servant ed fourteen, has been arrested at Staroja, Government of Novgorod, on a charge of ing the two-year-old child of her mistress ngulation. The girl, it is added, has since ed that she had previously committed similar murders, ten of the victims being n who had been entrusted to the care of ther. She states that her only motive for mes was that she disliked the trouble of after the children.

ASS PETTY SESSIONS.—These sessions ld yesterday before Mr Walsh and Mr pp. There were seven summonses against named McNamara for trespass on the demesne. Mr Westropp did not ade in the case, A gamekeeper named John gave evidence of the trespass. Defen-tated that he had got leave from Mr pp to enter the demesne. Mr Westropp giving defendant leave. He was fined 6d case.

ICK'S BAKING POWDER.
ICK'S BAKING POWDER.
ICK'S BAKING POWDER.
ICK'S BAKING POWDER.
ICK'S BAKING POWDER.
ICK'S BAKING POWDER
1,

Best Baking Powder in the World. Wholesome, Pure, and Free from Alum.

then delivered, the accused being found guilty of having abstracted and sent to a foreign country written documents relating to the national defence. The Court therefore sentenced the prisoner to 5 years' imprisonment, and to pay a fine of 5,000 francs, the maximum penalty prescribed by law.

Announcement of Births, Marriages and Deaths, not exceeding 5 lines (which must in all cases be duly authenticated), are charged 2s 6d each. For every additional line 6d.

BIRTHS.

Shepherd—December 20 at Rahan, Bray, County Wicklow, the wife of Eric A. Shepherd, prematurely, of a daughter (Mary), who only survived its birth a few hours.

Taylor—December 20, at Stradbally Rectory, Castleconnell, the wife of the Rev T. Taylor of a son.

Trollope—December 13, at The Cottage, Wimbledon Park, London, the wife of R Gerald Trol ope of a daughter.

Moore—December 17, at Lichfield, the wife of Major W Moore, South Staffordshire Regiment, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

Grey and Gumley — December 17, at St Bartholomew's Church, Dublin, by the Rev. W R. Supple, B.D., Alexander Grey, Esq, D.I., R.I.C., son of the late Rev Alexander Grey, LL.D., to Kathleen Mary (Madoe), daughter of the late John Stewart Gumley, British Consul, Batavia, Java.

Russell aud Pearsall Smith—December 13, at the Friends' Meeting House in St Martin's lane, London, the Hon Bertrand Russell son of the late Viscount Amberley, to Alys W Pearsall Smith, of 44 Grosvenor road, London, S W.

DEATHS.

Lysaght—On Decemb r 15th, at Clifton, Bristol, Elizabeth Jane, widow of William Lysaght, J.P, of Beechmount, Mallow, and of Limerick.

Shepherd—December 20, at her residence, Rahan, Bray, County Wicklow, the dearly-beloved wife of Eric A. Shepherd. Funeral from Parish Church, St Michael, Limerick, at 11 a.m. on Monday, for Mount St Laurence.

Keane—On December 19th, 1894, at Ballycalla, Newmarket-on-Fergus, John Keane, deeply regretted by his sorrowing family and a large circle of friends—R.I.P.

O'Malley—At Maddyboy, on the 21st instant, Michael O'Malley. Funeral leaves Murroe Chapel on Sunday at one o'clock for Clonkeen—R.I.P.

LONDON TO THE FALLS OF NIAGARA, 50 views; the Holy Land, 60 views; Around the World with a Camera, 60 views; the Sights of Rome, 50 views; the Rhine Tour, 50 views; with various views of Old Irish Ruins and Scenery, are amongst the Photographic Lecture Sets of Lantern Slides in stock for the present season at Cole, Nelson and Co's, Patrick street, Limerick. They also have an almost endless variety of Comic and Mechanical Slides, which vary in price from 6d to 30s, and a very large range of the most up-to-date Lanterns at from 2s 9d to £50. They are prepared to arrange for Lime-Light entertainments either in town or country on most moderate terms, and will send full particulars on receipt of Post Card. (Sept 27.)

Writs have been issued for the election of an Irish Representative Peer in succession to the late Lord Carbery.

ties has been imprisoned for sign of Socialist Deputies.

LORD R. CHURCHILL'S A

The Morning says the news al dolph Churchill is of the very sa is said to be paralysed on one si lost the faculty of recognising pec tutionally excitable temper pla stances of too great strain, exc smoking, want of open air exerci the resort to opiates are genera the causes of this premature of the most brilliant politicians If he had never been made leader Commons, but had remained quie Office, Lord Randolph Churchill this hour.

Mr and Mrs Gladstone will le on January 7th for Cannes, when stay they will go to Biarritz.

A Sofia telegram states that, having failed to form a Cabinet, entrusted with the task, and has

Lieutenant-Colonel E E Mone of the 9th Bengal Lancers, stati Pindi, has been shot dead by a se regiment.

In shipping circles in New Yo are stated to be in progress in E ing the steerage rates war betwee the United States.

Lady Willoughby de Brode, wi of the Warwickshire Hounds, afternoon at Kineton House, Wa a long and painful illness.

Lord Dunraven's representativ has received a cablegram from h ing that a meeting of the Royal has been called for the 5th of Ja

The announcement is made Mr Robert Potts, of Kilmore, Co. was born on the 14th of February therefore, nearly completed his 1

Early this morning, during th hundredweight of brickwork fell City Market buildings into Dublin. Fortunately no person

The Evening Telegraph says:—I Mr George Collins, of the firm and Clay, will be the successo George Bolton as Crown Pros perary.

A German ex-lieutenant na was tried and convict d in Par the charge of being a spy, and s years' imprisonment and a fine He gave notice of appeal.

In the Divorce Division, Lond decree nisi was granted on the wife of Mr Richard Cecil Leigh, eloped with the wife of Sir Henr thereupon obtained a divorce.

The condition of Earl Sha suffering from low fever at Ballin Cork, was reported to be much i day, and his lordship's medical tains hopes of speedy recovery.

An impressive service in me Sir John Thompson was held y Roman Catholic Cathedral, Ottaw were present, including the Ca judges, and municipal represents