Boon to Sports Girl

The new method overcomes the trouble entirely: the foundation itself is matt and under no circumstances will it become shiny. It stays matt whatever happens. In fact, Miner's Liquid Make-Up Foundation is, at last, the perfect foundation for which women have waited and longed. It enables every woman to look her best all day long, because it gives a flawless, peach bloom complexion that will retain its exquisite matt surface. One application lasts all day and it's quite easy to apply. Get a bottle from your chemist today. He has it in five skin matched shades: Naturel, Rachel, Dark Rachel, Blonde Tan, Brunette Tan at 8d. and 1/9

OBITUARY

MR. TOM McDONNELL.

The death of Mr. Tom McDonnell, who passed away unexpectedly at his residence, Lansdowne Park, on Saturday last, has caused widespread regret not alone among his family and relatives, but to a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. The deceased was very well known throughout the country, and particularly in the south of Ireland, where his business as an Inspector of the New Ireland Assurance Company brought him in contact with various business and other institutions. Apart from his many sterling qualities which endeared him to all he was also a great lover of outdoor games and his face will be missed from the fields of Rugby and hurling, which were his favourite pastimes. He was a member of the Garryowen and Shannon Rugby Football Clubs for a long number of years.

To his widow and sons we extend sincerest sympathy in the great loss they have sustained.

The funeral took place on Monday last from St. Munchin's Church where Requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of his soul. The huge cortege which followed the remains was representative of all classes and testified to the esteem in which the deceased and his family are held in the city.

The clergy in attendance were—Very Rev. Canon O'Dwyer, P.P., V.F., St. Munchin's, who officiated at the graveside; Rev. Father McCarthy, C.C., do.; Rev. Father Godfrey, C.C., do., and Rev. Father Ryan, C.C., do.

The chief mourners were—Margaret McDonnell (wife), Tom, Charlie and Jack (sons), Angela (daughter-in-law), Winnie and John O'Donoghue (Cork), Dr. and Mrs. Charles McDonnell, Joe McDonnell, L.D.S.; Cecil McDonnell, Miss Hessian, Mrs. Fitzgerald (Dublin), Nellie and Willie Ryan (Croom), Tom McDonnell (Kildimo), Mr. and Mrs. Dick O'Connor, May, George and Maureen O'Connor, Nell and Lionel Forde, Paul and Mary O'Connor, Mrs. E. O'Brien and family (relatives).

Included in the large cortege were:—His Worship the Mayor, Mr. J. J. Berkery, City Manager, and representatives of the Army, legal and medical professions, business establishments, and the various sporting organisations in the city. The Head Office of the New Ireland and Irish National Assurance Companies were represented by Mr. A. E. O'Callaghan, Assistant General Manager, as well as the staffs of the local offices, together with representatives of the following Insurance Companies:—Irish, Hibernian, Royal, Yorkshire, Phoenix, Commercial Union, Royal Exchange, London and Lancashire, General Accident, Royal Liver, Globe and Fine Art.

A detachment of the Intelligence Unit of 49th Batt., L.D.F., under Group Leader McGlennon, attended.

There were numerous wreaths, Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy.

MRS. O'KELLY, KILTANNA, KNOCKADERRY.

The death of Mrs. O'Kelly, relict of the late Denis O'Kelly, of Killaculleen, Tournafulla, took place recently at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Joe Quaid, Kiltanna, Knockaderry, fortified by all the rites of Holy Church, of which she was a devout member. Deceased was a member of a very old and respected family. She was a lady of the highest intelligence and foresight and retained all her faculties unimpared to the very end. Her kindly genial and charitable disposition endeared her to all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. The news of her demise was received with regret over a very wide area of Limerick and Kerry, and especially in Tournafulla, where she spent most of her lifetime, the traits of her great charity, unostentatious in deed and word, were recalled by many. During the Black and Tan regime Mrs. O'Kelly's home was a haven of rest and comfort for the I.R.A., and the leaders and men of West Limerick, North Cork and Kerry Brigades, many of whom are now in foreign lands, will recall the cheerful kindness received at the hands of Mrs. O'Kelly during those dark days when to render succour to the "boys" was an act which may draw down on anybody the most frightful rigours of the laws, then entirely vested in the hands of the armed forces of the Crown.

There was a very large attendance at the removal of the remains to Knockaderry Parish Church, and the huge concourse that attended the funeral to Monagea, representative of all classes of the community over a wide area of Limerick and Kerry, bore ample evidence of the very high esteem enjoyed by deceased and her family and was a very fitting tribute to the passing of a great woman.

The chief mourners were:—Mrs. Joe Quaid, Mrs. J. O'Sullivan, Mrs. L. McCarthy, Mrs. P. Elliott (daughters), Dr. Daniel O'Kelly, R.M.S. Carlow; Dr. Denis O'Kelly, Curragh Camp, Thomas James and Pat O'Kelly (sons), Col. D. T. Lane, M.D., Ballybunion (brother), Mrs. Lane (sister-in-law), Joe Quaid, Pat Elliott (sons-in-law), Mrs. D. O'Kelly, Mrs. T. Kelly, Mrs. P. O'Kelly, and Mrs. J. O'Kelly (daughters-in-law), her grandchildren, nephews and nieces. It would be impossible to give a list of the names of the many relatives and members of the general public attending.

The clergy officiating at the obsequies were:—Rev. Father O'Connor, P.P., Knockaderry; Rev. Father Boyce, C.C., do.; Rev. Father Ruddle, P.P., Tournafulla; Rev. Father Lynch, P.P., Broghna; Rev. Father O'Grady, C.C., Newcastle West; Rev. Father Houlihan, C.C., Abbeyfeale.

Many messages of sympathy were received and a large number of Mass cards were sent by relatives and friends.

KILLALOE RED CROSS

In the county competition held at Ennis on Sunday last for best knowledge, theoritical and practical, of first aid (writes our Killaloe correspondent) the members of the Killaloe Branch took 1st place. This is a great victory and an honour to the town and district and, it is hoped, is but a prelude to future and more glorious successes. It shows what can be accomplished by perseverance and earnestness. We have much pleasure in congratulating the young ladies themselves, Dr. Mary Courtney, their medical instructor, Mrs. Gleeson, Thurles, Miss M. Cass

GAELS AND GAMES

(By "THOMOND").

Reminiscences.

The election of officers to the Munster Council for the year 1904 resulted as follows:—President, T. F. O'Sullivan, Kerry; Vice-President, P. J. Hayes, Limerick; Treasurer, Daniel Fraher, Waterford; Secretary, Thomas Dooley, Cork. At a meeting of the Munster Council at Limerick on the 1st of May, an appeal was heard from Mr. Spencer Lyons against the constitution of the Limerick Co. Convention, at which he was defeated for the chair by 39 votes to 35 by Mr. Laurence Roche, Bruree. The appeal was upheld and subsequently sustained by the Central Council.

My Comments.

This reference to this Munster Council of long ago is interesting, as it refers to two great Gaels—Spencer Lyons, of Croom, and Paddy Hayes, of the city, who directed Limerick G.A.A. affairs for a number of years. Spencer filled the chair and Paddy acted as secretary of our County Board. I had the pleasure of working with them at our meetings in the Town Hall and the Commercial Hotel, Catherine Street. Spencer regretfully passed away in comparatively early life, but Major Roche is hale and well across the water. I got the usual card keeping up our friendly connection even last Christmas.

Limerick Pioneers.

While on the subject, I may mention five Limerick Gaels who occupied the highest offices in the Central Council of the G.A.A. and who did trojan work in the stormiest period of our Association. They were:—Father B. Dineen, Badylanders; R. P. Clery, Caherconlish; P. Hassett, Ahane; A. Mackey, Castleconnell, and R. A. Gleeson, Fedamore.

Church Tournament.

The County Board has sanctioned a splendid hurling tournament in aid of the Mission, Liberia, West Africa. Ahane will meet an East Limerick selection, while Croom will play a West Limerick pick; winners to play off. The City Board are doing their part. The final of the New Ireland Shield, 1942, Ballybrown v. St. Patricks, will help a gate for this most deserving object.

Rev. J. Higgins, S.M.A.

The Mission and its representative, Rev. J. Higgins, S.M.A., richly deserve this compliment from the Gaels of Limerick. Father Higgins, at present at home in the city, has closely identified himself with our G.A.A. since a youth. The games—clubs versus selections—will greatly help a trial out for our best county team for the Munster games.

County Team.

A correspondent signing himself "City Gael" writes me as follows: "In a few weeks Limerick hurlers cross the Shannon to meet Clare on their own grounds—Ennis—for the first tie in the Munster Championship. On the rumoured retirement of the three Paddies—Scanlan, Chohesy and McMahon—those three important positions require immediate consideration by our selectors. Can we not get any goalie near a Scanlan in city or county? Why not some clubs train some of their hurlers for this most important post? Necessity shows up talent. In the absence of Jackey Power in Dublin, I saw John Mackey splendidly fill the centre-back position, but then how fill his place on the half-back wing. Power may be able to come back.

"In our best days, when we had the 'best team ever,' 1933-36, our front forward line was the weakest in our great combinations," continues "City Gael." "As a great Cork hurler said to me: 'From your front line to Scanlan, Limerick has the best set of hurlers that ever graced a hurling pitch.' There were great hurlers in our front attack, but the exhibitions there were often not up to the mark—weak spots and great games lost. Let our selectors and trainer weigh well those five important positions, and history will be repeated in certain great Limerick victories again. It will be the cause of much regret that before some more of our great veterans retire, some of those glaring weaknesses are not corrected. Limerick hurlers can lead Ireland if my suggestions be acted on. The men are there. Get them."

Over the Air.

I am reminded that Sean O'Callachain, in his Sunday talk, stated that the Ahane exhibition reminded him of Limerick thrills when they led Ireland. He concluded from his observation of the game, Ahane v. Eoghan Ruadh, that "Limerick made Ahane or Ahane made Limerick in hurling history." Sean had a son prominent in the Dublin team and our broadcaster kindly visited the Ahane players after the game. The O'Callachains are connected with Co. Limerick, their mother being a sister of Senator D. J. Madden, M.C.C., Rathkeale.

Dublin Opinion.

From the Sunday paper I take this compliment from their G.A.A. critic to our hurlers:—"The Ahane win over Eoghan Ruadh at Croke Park on last Sunday speaks well for Limerick hurling. There is the nucleus of a first class county selection in this Ahane team. T. Herbert proved himself a hurler of great merit. Had this writer known that the younger brother, Sean, had a broken finger since a previous game he would have included him in the compliment. This outside opinion speaks well for Limerick's G.A.A. prospects for 1943.

At G.A.A. Grounds.

Ahane enhanced their already promising start in the first round of the senior hurling championship by scoring a runaway victory over City Gaels at the Ennis Road Grounds on Sunday last. The final scores were—Ahane, 9 gls. 7 pts.; City Gaels, 1 point. At the same venue, Mungret defeated 12th Batt. on the score of 5 gls. 4 pts. to 4 gls. 5 pts. in the junior hurling championship, while Ballybrown scored an easy win over Fedamore in the same code. The final scores in this game were—Ballybrown, 8 gls. 5 pts.; Fedamore, 1 goal 2 pts.

TO MEET CORK

LIMERICK HURLING TEAM SELECTED

On Sunday next, at the Cork Athletic Grounds, Limerick and Cork meet in aid of an Irish Red Cross tournament.

The following players have been selected to represent Limerick:—M. Mackey, J. Mackey, T. Ryan, J. Power, T. Herbert, S. Herbert, M.

CITY CINEMAS

THE THOMOND — The thrill-packed story of a reporter who risks every danger hunting headlines—or making them—is excitingly told in Warner's "Nine Lives are not Enough," starring Ronald Reagan, Joan Perry, James Gleason and Howard de Sylvia. The supporting feature, "Big Hearted Herbert," features Guy Kibbee and Aline MacMahon. Mystery and fun are blended in Wednesday's "The Body Disappears," a grand comedy featuring Jeffrey Lynn, Jane Wyman, Edward Everett Horton, and Marguerite Chapman. Mary Astor and Lyle Talbot drive a racing auto. at breath-taking speed to victory in the support, "Racing Luck." On Friday the programme changes to "Saboteur," a new type of thriller. This is a pulsating drama of saboteurs and the climax when the man falls from the top of the Statue of Liberty in New York is without parallel in electrifying endings. The cast includes Priscilla Lane, Robert Cummings, Otto Kruger, Alan Baxter, Norman Lloyd.

THE CARLTON — One of the finest films of the year, "The Tuttles of Tahiti," opens a three days stay at the Carlton on Monday next. The story of the Tuttles will long be remembered by those who see the charming film. Charles Laughton, fresh from his sensational success in "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," gives a fine performance in a kindly comedy role. Jon Hall (of "Hurricane") heads the supporting cast which includes Peggy Drake, Victor Franchen, Gene Reynolds and Florence Bates. On Thursday the programme changes to Ginger Rogers' latest picture, "Tom, Dick and Harry." This grand comedy tells a gay and witty story that packs laughs in every scene. Ginger has three friends — Alan Marshall, George Murphy and Burgess Meredith. Each wants her to be his wife—so she thinks of what life would be with each of them. These dream sequences make the film one of the most enjoyable treats in recent months.

THE LYRIC — The story of a man condemned to die, who sits awaiting execution while the girl he loves races against time to prove his innocence, will be told in "To-day I Hang," opening at the Lyric on Monday next. The cast of this superb drama includes Walter Wool King, Mona Barrie and William Farnum. The supporting feature, "Man From Headquarters," boasts plenty of action and a constant succession of dramatic situations. With Frank Albertson and Joan Woodbury heading the attractive cast, the story tells of the adventure of a daring newspaper man who tracks down a ruthless master-mind of crime. On Thursday the programme changes to Metro's "Design For Scandal," a film in which Walter Pidgeon sings for the first time on the screen. This grand comedy presents Rosalind Russell in one of her gayest characterisations to date, while she is surrounded by a constellation of stars and featured players, including Edward Arnold, Lee Bowman, Jean Rogers, Mary Beth Hughes, Guy Kibbee, Barbara Jo Allen and Thurston Hall.

THE GRAND CENTRAL — On Monday the Grand Central will screen Paramount's "No Hands on the Clock," with a grand cast of players, headed by Chester Morris, Jean Parker and Rose Hobart. The story combines mystery, comedy and adventure, and concerns the interrupted honeymoon of a private detective. The supporting feature, "Promise Fulfilled," tells a further tale of that famous historical figure, Wild Bill Hickok. This time his brother Dane is concerned in an authentic story. Bill Elliott, Evelyn Young and Stanley Brown head the cast. Burgess Meredith and Claire Trevor co-star in "Street of Chance," an unusual murder mystery, opening on Thursday next. Magnificent acting by the stars make the film a memorable one, while Sheldon Leonard, Louise Platt, Frieda Inescort and Jerome Cowan complete the cast. Fast action, good fights, bright vocal intermissions, and an exciting climax are the ingredients of the supporting feature, "Forestalled," with Charles Starrett, Iris Meredith and the Sons of the Pioneers.

THE COLISEUM — "Buy Me That Town," full of laughs and drama, opens at the Coliseum on Monday next. The stars are Lloyd Nolan, Constance Moore, Albert Dekker, Sheldon Leonard, Barbara Allen, Edward Brophy and Warren Hymer. One of the funniest screen romances of the season, "Barnacle Bill," opens on Wednesday with Wallace Beery, Marjorie Main, Leo Carrillo, Virginia Weidler, Donald Meek and Barton McLane. Custer's last stand is thrillingly re-enacted in Warner's "They Died With Their Boots On," which makes its third appearance in Limerick on Friday next. This mammoth film—running over 2 hours and 20 minutes—packs action, thrills and a little romance. Special music was written by Max Steiner, who also wrote the music for "Gone With The Wind." An interesting feature of the film is the singing of "Garryowen" by a number of soldiers. The big cast includes Errol Flynn, Olivia de Havilland, Sidney Greenstreet (later seen in "The Maltese Falcon" as the "fat man"), Gene Lockhart and John Litel. First house shows will be at 6.30.

THE SAVOY—Fred Astaire and Rita Hayworth come to the Savoy on Monday next for one week in the eagerly awaited "You Were Never Lovelier." Set in Buenos Aires, the story deals with the efforts of a hotel proprietor to interest his eldest daughter in romance, and how a famous dancer who has lost all his money at the races, comes into the plot. Beautifully and lavishly staged, the entire production is a gay mixture of love, laughter, song and dance. The many hit tunes include "I'm Old Fashioned," "Dearly Beloved," "You Were Never Lovelier," "Wedding in Spring," and a sensational specialty by Xavier Cugat and his Orchestra, "Chu-Chu." This well-known orchestra are always under special contract at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York. The cast of the picture includes Adolphe Menjou, Leslie Brooks, Adele Mara, Gus Shilling, Kathleen Howard and Mary Field.
