I lost a husband with a heart of gold.
He was more to me than wealth untold.
Although I smile and seem care free,
There's none that mourns him more than me.
Unseen by the world he stands by my side
And whispers—don't grieve, my loved one,
Death cannot divide.

—Sadly missed by his loving wife, May. (28p)

TREHY (First Anniversary)—In sad and ever-loving memory of Clem Trehy, Royal Engineers (late The Park, Limerick), who was accidentally drowned in Scotland on the 30th October, 1943. Masses offered.—Inserted by his sorrowing mother, sisters and brother. (28p)

WHELAN (Fourth Anniversary)—In sad and loving memory of Laurence J. Whelan, ex-R.I.C., late of 20, Donnellan Villas, Prospect, who died on October 26th, 1940. On whose soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy. Masses offered.

Will those who think of him to-day,
A silent prayer to Jesus say.

—Inserted by his loving wife and family. (f28p)

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

CASEY—The widow, family and brothers of the late Michael Casey, Ballinagoole, Croagh, wish to return their very sincere thanks to the many kind friends who sympathised with them in their recent sad bereavement; also those who sent Mass cards, wreaths, telegrams and numerous letters of sympathy; and those who attended the funeral. They trust that this will be accepted by all in grateful acknowledgment. (28c)
