The Minister Council
A meeting of the Minister Council will be held at the Hotel, Thomas-street, on Monday next at 8 o'clock.

Next Sunday's Match
Two hurling contests will be decided at the Mackey's field on Sunday next, viz. Claghuaun v. Claghuaun (Junior) and Druff v. Claghuaun (Senior).

Commercial Football Club
At a special meeting of the Commercial Football Club, O'Connell-street, the annual general meeting was held on Wednesday last.

Former Year's Work
The Commercial are not kept too busy at late on the football field. For the past year they have only played one match, but of course that was not the case.

Limerick Annual Convention
At the meeting of the County Board on Wednesday last, it was decided to hold the annual Convention at St. Mary's Day next.

Ties in the All-Ireland
At a meeting of the Central Council, G.A.A., on Saturday the following news is reported from Limerick on the 20th March, viz. Tipperary v. Galway (junior hurling) and Kerry v. Mayo v. Galway (junior football).

Hurling in the North
It is pleasing to learn that the National papers are being catered for in the North at present. At the recent County Athletic Convention, the chairman, Mr. Deane, proposed on the 20th that the necessity of giving preference to the game of hurling in the County.

Who Doyle's Jones is
Some comments have recently been made on the action of the Central Council in giving the title of 'Doyle's Jones' to the 'Cork' Memorial to an English firm, 'The Corks.'

The Memorial
The Cork Memorial, which is a tablet in the shape of a cross, stands in the front of the 'Cork Memorial' in the city of Cork.

County Secretary's Bereavement
Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. D.M. O'Connell, County Secretary, on the death of his father, which took place on Saturday last.

Two W's
Two hurling contests were held for the Mackey's field on Sunday last, viz. Claghuaun v. Claghuaun (Junior) and Druff v. Claghuaun (Senior).

The Wizard's Question
In a contemporary again appears a letter from 'J.P.' of New York, protesting against my recent note agreeing with a correspondent in Philadelphia that 'Cianoy' is a 'New York' name.

EXHIBITION OF MARES
Our Gilt correspondent writes stating that a Show of Mares under the County Limerick Horse Breeding Scheme was held on Wednesday last at the Mackey's field.

PECULIAR ASSAULT CHARGES
At the Kilrush Petty Sessions, before Messrs M. O'Connell, J.P., and Wm. Murphy, J.P., on Tuesday last, a case was heard against James Murphy, of the Claghuaun district, charging him with an alleged assault on a woman named Mrs. Murphy.

LECTURE AT GLEN
An interesting and instructive lecture on poetry was given by Miss Jones, of the Department of Education, at the Glen School on Tuesday evening last.

TO-MORROW MAY BE TOO LATE GET A BOX TO-DAY
Mr. Pritchard, Cunningham, Essex, writes 'I received through Miss Fitzgerald and Miss Bonython, of the County Limerick, a box of your pills which I have taken with the best results.

SAVING SPILLERS' PURITY FLOUR
when you want a bag of "the best Flour" and make certain that the name 'Spillers' is on the bag. By doing this every time you buy flour you protect yourself against imitations.

The reason Spillers' Purity Flour has such a large sale in Ireland is that Irish housewives have found it to be the very best that can be bought: they have been buying it for the past eighteen years.

You can get Spillers' Purity Flour in 7lb., 14lb. and 28lb. up to 224 lb. Cotton Bags at any Grocer's or flour dealers.

SPILLERS' PURITY FLOUR
THE NAME 'SPILLERS' IS ON EVERY BAG OF GENUINE PURITY FLOUR Exactly as sketched
