THE OHRISTIAN BROTHERS

ras tubilal stops, we are glad to see, have been mive for marking in a propheral and definite way the anniversary, which eccure this year of the bendenary of the astablishment of the Christian Breakers in Linserick. The City High Shariff (Counsilior T.S. Liwing) has issued a circular with the object of baving a general councilities formed to take the matter up and make the calebration in June, as he juke is worthy of the great occasion. The sommittes, we understand, will be called touch during the present weak for the purpose, as the directar points out, of organising means to realize a sufficient funit to increase and funpreve the existing accommodation for pupils at the Sation-street Schools. That project, we need hardly, say, has our most earnest approval, and re heartily command is to the meserous and anthusiastic support of every oilizen who can approclars long and vapable services to the cause of Catholic teaching and sound and metal general education. The idea of providing for the Brothers in our midet additional polities for the pursuit of their excellent work is in the abstract a most admirable one.

but it is all the more praiseworthy when the phisot in view is not only to cates for a neces ever but to sat up in tangible form some recog. sition of a record that marits no small amount of gratifude and appreciation. The history of the Order in Limerick, as we pointed out .recently, is one on which the Brothers themselves are to be heartily congratulated, and i which the oltizons in general may well take a legitimate pride. Throughout the world le-day occupying good positions are to tound Limerick men who owe their success i life to the Christian Brothers, and who, In the

A vary aloquent and touching sermon wa preached in St John's Cathedral at twalve o'clock Mass yesterday by the Most Rev Dr O'Dwyer. His Lordship dealt in a powerful manuar with the honeur and reverence due to the Blessed Virgin, and made a most impressive plan for devotion to Our Blessed Lady. At the same Mass in the same sacred edifice he will preach on the remaining Sundays'in Lent.

French Flag Day A Flag Day for the French wounded soldiers was held in Limerick on Saturday. It was, we underetand, a-considerable success. Many however, expressed regret and surprise that the collection was not more thoroughly organised. For historio reasons, which are well known, there is no part of Ireland in which a Flag Day in sid of the French should be such success as in the city from which the " Will Geose " salled in the days of Sarsfield.

It was not fair of the labourers to handleap the Council in this way. . The Council had been more than kind to them and had striven hard to get them a reduction in their rents, and if they didn't succeed it' wasn't the Council's fault (hear, hear). The rents would have to be paid, and the money would have to be collected at once. Is would mean a surcharge if the defaulting tenants didn't pay up, and the Council would have to take strong measures with them.

Mr Ryan (V C) said it was he who moved. In the matter of trying to get the labourers concert be definitely fixed for Sunday, 30th a reduction in their rents. It appeared they wore at a standstill in that connection. He was one of a deputation appointed to go to
