may be relied upon, at all times, to exercise a tonic, cleansing, healing influence upon the digestive organs. A sensible use of this well-known specific is generally all that is needed to relieve and remove those disorders of the stomach liver and bowels, which are always associated with dyspepsia in any form. Beecham's Pills are unfailing as a corrective and invaluable as a safe stimulant of that important organ, the liver, upon the efficient action of which so much depends. As a cure for constipation and for removing its attendant discomforts and dangers there is no more reliable remedy. In fact, as an aid to health generally, the judicious use of Beecham's Pills is strongly recommended. They are
