LATE MR. F. B. DINNEEN. HIS ATHLETIC CAREER.

Strangely enough, very little seems to be known or remembered of Frank Dinneen's athletic career. His career on the field was that of a star, and he was one of the best players in the South of Ireland with his marvellous turn of speed. I have often thought that he could have made a world-wide name for himself as a professional athlete.

LIMERICK TRAGEDY. MAN FOUND DROWNED. Evidence at Inquest.

The dead body of a man named James Moran, Thomondgarra, was found floating in the water on Saturday morning by some men working at the Canal. The deceased was last seen at home at 8 o'clock, but suddenly disappeared. He was an ex-soldier, 18 years of age, and unmarried.

THE FAMINE SCOURGE. Russia's Timber Resources.

Famine was a frequent scourge in ancient and medieval days, when transport was both bad and uncertain; but even in modern times there have been some terrible famines. In 1847-48 more than 1,000,000 people died in the N.W. Indian famine and 1,500,000 in the Bengal famine in 1876-77.

RUSSIA'S TIMBER RESOURCES. Russia now occupies first place among the nations of the world in the extent of her timber resources.

Russia now occupies first place among the nations of the world in the extent of her timber resources. The value and quality of two-thirds of which are practically unknown. The total area of the Empire is about six-sevenths of the land surface of the globe, and 39 per cent of it is under forest.

WHEN EVERYTHING GOES WRONG. SYMPTOMS of kidney weakness, such as unnatural drowsiness, blurred eyesight, backache, urinary trouble, lumbago, gravel, stone, rheumatism, and dropsy are enough to make anyone feel that everything has gone wrong.

Symptoms of kidney weakness, such as unnatural drowsiness, blurred eyesight, backache, urinary trouble, lumbago, gravel, stone, rheumatism, and dropsy are enough to make anyone feel that everything has gone wrong. The sooner such a state of things is changed, the better, because incurable kidney disease may come as a result.
