NEW CHURCH TO OUR LADY OF LOURDES, LOWER GLOUCESTER STREET, DUBLIN.

A temporary office has been erected on the site secured for the New Church, which is so bodily needed in this locality.
It is already consecrated, and the Shrine has aroused a deep spirit of Devotion to Our Lady of Lourdes, with most beneficial results amongst the people.
The temporary structure must serve until the funds necessary to build a permanent Church to Our Lady of Lourdes are collected. The district is the most densely populated and poorest in the city, and therefore little pecuniary aid can be expected from it.
The Admistrators strongly appeals to the generosity of the Catholics of Dublin and Ireland to assist him in carrying out the good work.
The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered each week for Subscribers.
Subscriptions will be thankfully received by any of the Clergy, or by John Meers J Fleming (in the chair) and John Carroll, M.C.

The Master of the House (Mr. Meers) stated that on the 11th April defendant came to the workhouse and had language, and attempted to assault an inmate...

Defendant said he had no question to ask; the magistrates could deal with him as they wished.

Sergeant Quirk stated that he was the first time defendant interfered with the police. His wife irritates him, and he then comes out of the house with a chair in his hand...

Defendant was fined 10s for the assault, and 2s 6d on each charge of drunkenness.

Complainant stated that instead of bringing defendant to the bar, he assaulted him with a chair; defendant struck and made several kicks at him.

Defendant was sentenced to a month's imprisonment with hard labour.

William Noonan, Hantard, was fined 1s for cruelty to a mule by a letter setting out in the fish.

Timothy Higgins was fined 1s for permitting a dog to be worked while suffering from a sore.

Constable Mahoney was complainant in both cases.
