NEW CHURCH TO OUR LADY OF LOURDES,
 LOWER GLOUCESTER STREET, DUBLIN.
 A temporary edifice has been erected on the site secured for the New Church, which is badly needed in this locality. It is already overcrowded, and the Shrine has aroused a deep spirit of devotion to Our Lady of Lourdes, with most beneficial results amongst the people. The temporary structure must serve until the funds necessary to build a permanent Church to Our Lady of Lourdes are collected. The District is the most densely populated and poorest in the city, and therefore little pecuniary aid can be expected from it. The Administrator accordingly appeals to the generosity of the Catholics of Dublin and Ireland to assist him in carrying out the great work which he has undertaken. The Holy Shrine of the Mass will be offered each week for subscribers. Subscriptions will be thankfully received by any of the Clergy, or by

THE ACCUSATIONS ON KELLY COAST Starting Evidence Given

Story of the "Irish Brigade" The announcement that the public trial of Sir Roger Casement would open at Bow-street, London, on Monday, attracted large crowds to the court.

Representatives of the London, Provincial, and Foreign Press formed a by no means considerable part of the footing crowd. They were for the most part in the accommodation available.

For some time speeches were heard from the various sections of the press. The speaker was marked as one after another prominently associated with the case were let down (take as the main entrance of the building).

STATEMENT OF THE CASE The Attorney General, rising to present the case for the Crown, at once stated that the charges against Casement were High Treason. He proceeded to trace the history of the accused case as far as it was known to the public.

He is now allowed to go free; he has been honoured with a seat in the Cabinet, while the young Irishmen who were good to the nation of insurrection by his insidious and treacherous counsel.
