MOTHER OF PERPETUAL SUCCOUR HISTORY OF THE FAMOUS PICTURE ITS SPECIAL INTEREST FOR LIMERICK Sermon in the Redeptionist Church

Preaching to the men of the Arch Confraternity of the Holy Family in the Redeptionist Church, the Rev. Fr. John Devlin, M.P., on Tuesday night of this week, delivered a most interesting and instructive sermon on the Mother of Perpetual Succour. He dealt in detail with the history of the famous and miraculous picture which is now in the custody of the Redeptionist Fathers, Dublin, and which, according to a special interest for Limerick Catholics, the picture, Father Higgins explained, was for a long time in the keeping of the King of France in Rome and was then transferred to the custody of the Redeptionist Fathers in the same city who have it still. The picture of the Mother of Perpetual Succour came to Limerick in 1854, and was placed in the church for the blessing conferred on a people since then by the Lord, in whose interest the picture is kept in the Redeptionist Church. The Holy Family Confraternity, which is such a new boon in our midst, on the arrival of the picture, had the picture placed in the church and celebrated in its honor, and this was followed by a series of processions, at the close of which the picture was placed in the church of the Holy Family, and the late Bishop Butler declared that the picture should be kept in the Confraternity and was the one of the great works of art in the city.

The Christian Brothers IRELAND'S DEBT TO THEM TRIBUTE BY MR. DEVLIN, M.P.

Speaking at the reopening of the Christian Brothers' school in Limerick, Mr. Devlin, M.P., on Tuesday night, made a tribute to the work of the Christian Brothers, who, he said, were the first to bring to Ireland the benefits of modern education. He said that the Christian Brothers were the first to bring to Ireland the benefits of modern education, and that they were the first to bring to Ireland the benefits of modern education. He said that the Christian Brothers were the first to bring to Ireland the benefits of modern education, and that they were the first to bring to Ireland the benefits of modern education.
