Limerick, Dec. 31, 1781.

DEANE HOAPE, Treasurer.

A detachment of 50 men with an Officer from the 5th Regiment, went by boat yesterday morning to Kilrush, by an order from the Collector, in consequence of the country people in that neighbourhood, boarding a Portuguese vessel which put in there by distress, and notwithstanding the exertions of the revenue Officers, still continue plaining the cargo, consisting of wine, fruit and during the cargo, consisting of wine, fruit and lait.

A letter received this morning, by the Printer hereof, from his Brother on board his Majesty's ship Duke, after mentioning the taking of the French transports by Admiral Kempenfelt, adds, "That one of the French transports of about 15 or 20 guns, on board of which was a small valuable cargo, and a great number of soldiers, refusing to strike, received a broadside from one of our ships, which immediately took her, and every soul on board perished. The sea running so high it was impossible to give any assistance. He also mentions, that had the English fleet been but two days sail farther to the southward, they must have fallen in with a French fleet of 200 ships of the line, which that day got into Breli-harbour."

By the above letter, we have the satisfaction of informing the Publick, that the whole lot, consisting of Admiral Kempenfelt's fleet, did not exceed three men wounded, one of whom had his leg lost.

The Tattar, Small, from this port to Glasgow, is taken and ransomed for 850 guineas.

MARRIED. A few days ago, Mr. William Smith of Neough, to Miss Molloy, of Blackforth in the county of Tipperary.
