Wednesday morning his Excellency the Governor, with a court to the isle of Providence, and and Bermudas, together with its dependents, had acceded to the federal union of the American States, and were preparing to send two members each, as Delegates to the Congress at Philadelphia.

The following notice was on Tuesday night filed in the Royal Exchange Coffee House.
January 10, 1782.

This evening were landed four gentlemen, passengers, and masters of vessels taken by the Anti-Briton privateer, of Dunkirk John Kelly, commander; they left the privateer at night about 5 o'clock Holyhead bearing E. S. E. five or six leagues, wind S. S. W. having in company a ship and a schooner, prices.

ROBERT DEANHAM
We are well informed that two of the ships captured by the above privateer, were from Liverpool, viz the Molly, about 140 tons, bound for Cork, with sugar, &c. and the other outward bound for the West Indies; that the Molly engaged the privateer, and continued a very smart action, until the captain and some of his men were killed; then she struck.

There were delivered into the Tower from Christmas 1780 to Christmas 1781, no fewer than 400,000 musket barrels for his Majesty's service; a larger number than any former year ever had a demand for.

It is currently reported that considerable changes in the law departments of this kingdom will shortly take place. The Rt. Hon.
Lord Tredon to have the seals, vice Lord Lifford to retire on a pension of 2000l per ann. The Rt. Hon. W. Burgh, to be chief Baron, with a pecage. The Solicitor General to be sent to the common pleas bench, in the room of Mr. Justice Hellien, who resires Mr. Serjeant Fitzgerald to be made Solicitor General. Mr. Toier to have the Serjeant's gown.

Several letters are arrived here which came in the last West India packet, and bring advices as late as the 7th of Nov.
They all agree, that if eight of the regiments are not immediately sent to garrison Jamaica, Antigua, St. Kitt's and Barbadoes, they have very little hope of remaining many months, under the dominion of the British crown.

It is said, a chapter of the order of the garter will be held at St. James's the 20th inst. when two ribbands will be disposed of, one to an Irish Duke, and the other to one of his Majesty's sons.

As the popish laws will speedily be thoroughly revised, it is much to be regretted, says a correspondent, that the legislature do not think of qualifying roman catholics to serve in the army, and to give commissions to such gentlemen of that persuasion who would offer to purchase, and express a desire of serving in their native rather than in a foreign country. The political Emperor of Germany never asked the gentlemen of Ireland, who are in his service, what religion they are of. Were the roman catholics of this kingdom suffered to incorporate themselves in our regiments, under the toleration of professing their religion, an army of man-ny thousand men might immediately be raised, and many brave officers be prevented the taking of Barbadoes.

A Brig. with Portuguese sailors, but suppose to be Dutch property, bound to Lisbon from Amsterdam, with wheat and cheese, is wreck'd in Donata, in the West of the county of Clare; the crew are saved.

This morning arrived the Soldo St. Francis Jozelios, from Lisbon; with Salt; This is the Vessel mentioned in our last to have put in be-distress; and had it not been for this timely and spirited exertions of Sekten Baily, Esq; Ports-Surveyor, who went with a military detachment to its relief, there would not have been a single article of ship or cargo, but must have fallen a sacrifice to the country people. Mr. Baily with the army are in pursuit of the delinquents.

Last Tuesday came on the election of a Representative in Parliament for the Borough of Dine-gle, in the room of the late Robert Fitzgerald Esq; when Richard Boyle Townshend, Esq; was unanimously elected.

Last Thursday night Mr. Derby Tracy, Carpenter, who has been missing for some time, was taken up drowned near the Poole.

a young man of unblemished reputation, and very much regretted by all his acquaintance.
