…rk, …
…, and arrived at
…er, to put on shore
…s on the paſſage a
…mperieux, of 800
…, from Cadiz for
…n ſalt, ſome arms,
…s, beſides medicines.
…Antigua, and arrived

…eceive a liſt of the
…gers on the American
…h of Auguſt and 31ſt

… prizes have already
…e papers at different

…ONDON GAZETTE

…March 18, 19, 20, 21, 22
…f Commons, yeſterday,
…Surrey ſtood up, in or-
…poſed motion relative to
…Lord North at the ſame
…his legs, and each ſeeming
…o the other, this created a
…uſion, one ſide of the Houſe
…dy for Lord Surrey, the
…North. At laſt,
…ſe to ſpeak to order, who
…r it indecent in the noble
…ue Ribbon, to riſe at a time
…the noble Earl had a motion
…conſequence to ſubmit to the

…d ſaid it was not through diſreſ
…noble Lord that he had riſen;
…him the trouble of making
…le the trouble of diſcuſſing a
…ch at preſent was become totally

…n for thinking it no longer nece-
…that as the object of the motion
…move his Majeſty's Miniſters, he
…upon him to ſay, that his Majeſty's
…ere no more; the object therefore
…eady attained, the means by which
…n had intended to obtain it, could
…er be neceſſary.
…Fox finding the Houſe in confuſion,
…the beſt way to produce order was
…ing, "That Lord Surrey be heard to
…his motion."
…W. Pitt ſeconded the motion for Lord
…y's being heard.
…rd North ſaid, he was now perfectly in …r, as there was a motion before the
…e, and to that motion he would ſpeak
…howing it was unneceſſary. When he
…that his Majeſty's Miniſters were no
…e, he meant ALL his Majeſty's Miniſters;
…d he would take upon him to aſſure the
…uſe, upon his honour, that the aſſertion
…as true, whatever gentlemen might affect
…ſay about the Credibility of Miniſters.
…He did not mean however, that the Miniſtry
…were actually out of office; but they ſtood
…only for the purpoſe of doing official buſi-
…neſs; till his Majeſty ſhould have nominated
…their ſucceſſors.
Lord Surrey conſented to wave his motion for the preſent.
As Mr. Fox had withdrawn his motion for having Lord Surrey heard, Lord North alſo withdrew his, for adjourning THEN, making another for adjourning till Monday. On this laſt motion the queſtion was put and carried without a diviſion.
The following is ſaid to be the arrangement of the new Miniſtry, which is expected to be declared on Monday next: viz.—Lord Rockingham, firſt Lord of the Treaſury; Adm. Keppel, 1ſt Lord of the Admiralty; Lord Thurlow, Lord Chancellor; Lord Camden, Lord Preſident; Duke of Richmond, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland; Duke of Grafton, Lord Privy Seal; Lord Howe, Paymaſter; Earl of Shelburne and Mr. Fox, Secretaries of State; Col. Barre, Secretary at War; Gen. Conway, Commander in Chief; Mr. Burke, Chancellor of the Exchequer; Mr. Dunning, Attorney General; Mr. Lee, Soliciter General.
General Arnold was in the gallery of the Houſe of Commons yeſterday, but he was ſo ſooner perceived by a noble Lord, (eldeſt ſon of a wealthy Duke) than he was going to move the Houſe to clear the gallery, but the noble Lord was induced, for the ſake of the other ſtrangers, to forego his motion, on condition that the General ſhould not again be introduced.
Tueſday, diſpatches were received from Newfoundland, by which we are informed, that a fleet of 20 Spaniſh men of war, were ſeen to paſs the Banks the 17th ult.
A letter from Portſmouth March 20, ſays, "A ſloop of war is juſt put in here from the Weſt Indies, and has brought over diſpatches for Government, with which an Officer ſet off for London.

niards, and
by a reſpectable houſe authority to ſay, is premature.
Commodore Elliot has hoiſted his broad pendant on board the Edgar man of war at Portſmouth.
Laſt night there was a meeting of the foreign Miniſters, Conſuls, &c. at the Marquis de Cordon, his Sardinian Majeſty's Ambaſſador's houſe in Lincoln's Inn Fields.
A letter from Aberdeen ſays, that an account is arrived there from the Orkneys, that a crew of a Dutch privateer landed there, and after treating ſome young women indecently, carried off every thing they found of value.
A letter, we are aſſured will ſhortly be read in the Houſe of Lords from Congreſs, expreſſive of the uneaſineſs under their preſent connexion with their new allies, and intimating a deſire of a reconciliation with Great Britain.
It is thought there will be no grand fleet this year, but that ſquadrons will be fitted out for the protection of homeward bound fleets, or to act as occaſion may require near home.
This morning ſome diſpatches were ſent off from the Secretary of State's office, to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.
Lord Camden has been twice with the King on the ſubject of the new Adminiſtration, and has been the negociator and mediator between the Rockingham and Shelburne parties.
Lord Sandwich came to town yeſterday.
The Bruſſels Gazette, received by Tueſday's Flanders mail gives the following as the authentic number of priſoners and ſtores taken at Fort St. Philip:—Brulf, General Murray, Sir Wm. Draper, Major Gen. Sydon, Mr. Sydon, Mr. Don, Adj. Gen. to Gen. Murray, one Qr maſter Gen. Major Hamilton, Town Major, 5 Aides du-camp, 2 Colonels, 3 Lieut. Cols. 4 Majors; in all 20. 18 Engliſh Regiments.—51ſt and 51ſt, 888 privates, 62 officers.—Regt. of Prince Ernſt and Goldaker, 55 officers, 844 privates.—Artillery, 6 privates.—Engineers, 251.—Navy, 30 officers, 18 officers, 132 Privates.—Corſicans, 3 officers, 554 Sailors.—; Chaplain.—10 Surgeons,—two Mates,—131 Women, and 17 children.—In all 1038. This return is ſigned by Mr. O'Brien, his Brittannic Majeſty's Commiſſary.
Stores.—222 guns in good condition, 83 may be made ſerviceable, 132 unfit for ſervice,—11 mortars; beſides ſwivels, howitzers, braſs and iron ordnance, &c. There were 1407 men in the Hoſpital.

LIMERICK.

Yeſterday the body of a man was taken up drowned at the Pool; it is not known who he fell into the river, nor who he is, but by his dreſs he appears to have been a ſervant.
MARRIED. A few days ago at Charleville, John Preſton, Eſq; to the amiable Miſs Martha Bowles, with a fortune of 1500l.
DIED. Laſt Friday, Mr. Peter Bell, an eminent card maker. Yeſterday morning much lamented, Mrs. Ann Barrett.
PORT-NEWS. March 26. Sailed the Sally, Cauſfield, Galway, ballaſt.
☞ The CONNELLO LIGHT HORSE are requeſted to Meet at BALLINGARRY, on Saturday the 30th inſt. at 12 o'Clock. It is hoped no Member will be Abſent, as ſome very particular Buſineſs is to be tranſacted.
CONNELL VEREKER, TREASURER
March 25, 1782. C. L. HORSE.

 Notice is hereby given to all Proſecutors and Perſons concerned, that purſuant to a Recognizance entered into by Randal Borough, of Querrin, Eſq; and George Smith of Kilruſh, Gentleman, both in the County of Clare, they will be ready to abide their Tryal, at the next Aſſizes of Ennis, for the ſaid County, on the 3d day of April next, on any Proſecution that may be carried on againſt them, relative to the Portugueſe ſhipwranded near Kilruſh aforeſaid, on or about the 25th day of December laſt paſt. Dated this 25th day of March 1782.
R. BOROUGH.
GEO. SMITH.

At a Meeting of the Officers and Committee of the LOYAL LIMERICK VOLUNTEERS, in the Council Chamber, Limerick, March the 18th, 1782.
Lieutenant Colonel RICHARD HARTE in the Chair.
Reſolved, That Brigadier General THOMAS SMYTH, our Colonel, and Lieutenant Colonel RICHARD HARTE, be requeſted, and are hereby appointed to Act as Delegates from this Corps, in Dublin, to confer with the Delegates of the ULSTER VOLUNTEERS, in all Conſtitutional Meaſures that may tend to a Redreſs of thoſe Grievances complained of in their Reſolutions of the 15th of February laſt.
Signed by Order,
MITCHEL BENNIS, Sec.
L. L. Volunteers.

Endeavours, to have Immediately
Bills explanatory & declaratory of our Rights.
A proper Modification of Poyning's Law
A real Free Trade.
And a better Conſideration of the pernicious Mutiny Bill.
That We hold the Right of private Opinion in Religious Matters to be inherent to all Mankind, and that we do Congratulate our Countrymen of the Roman Catholic Perſuaſion, on the late Relaxation of the Penal Laws; ſatisfied that ſuch a Meaſure muſt enſure Union and Harmony amongſt Us.
That We do abhor and execrate that preſumptuous Doctrine, "That Power makes Right," and rejoice that the Public Spirit of our Brave VOLUNTEERS, prevents Men who Dare advance ſuch Deſpotic Maxims, from carrying them into Execution.
And leaſt it ſhould be ſuggeſted that our Proceedings ariſe from a Deſire to ſhake off all Communication with Great Britain, We thus publickly Declare, that we are convinced there is not a Man in this Kingdom, who entertains a With ſo Ruinous to Both, but on the contrary, our ſincere Intention is to remove every Object of Jealouſy from the Eyes of either Nation, that We may embrace our Siſter with the warmeſt Feelings of Affection, and cement ſo indiſſoluable a Connection between us, as will enſure an equal Liberty to Both, what we are convinced we are doubly entitled to, as We are already to ſhare an equal Fate with her.
WE do hereby moſt ſolemnly engage ourſelves to each other, and to our Country, as Freemen, Men of Honour and Public Spirit, that we will on every enſuing Election, Support thoſe only who have exerted or will exert themſelves to put theſe, our fixed Reſolutions into ſpeedy and effectual Execution.
Reſolved That the above Reſolutions be inſerted in the Dublin Evening Poſt and Limerick Papers,

13	John Fitzgerald	1	John Grady, Junior
14	Hugh Maſſy, Jun.	2	Hugh Maſſy
15	Edward Croker	3	John Thos Waller
16	Mich Furnell	4	Wm. W. Newenham
17	Wm. Fitzgerald	5	Wm. Ryves
18	Richard Bourke	6	John Croker
19	Darby O'Grady	7	Charles Coote
20	Ben. Frend	8	Ger Blennerhaſſet
21	James Gubbins	9	Wm Odell
22	Wm. Wilſon	10	John Tuthill
23	Richard Taylor	11	Thomas Odell
		12	James Eliard

At a Meeting of ALL the VOLUNTEER CORPS of the COUNTY and CITY of LIMERICK, 22d March, 1782.
Major CROKER, in the Chair.
The Reſolutions and Addreſs of the ULSTER VOLUNTEERS, aſſembled at DUNGANNON on the fifteenth Day of February laſt, being read Paragraph by Paragraph.
Reſolved unanimouſly, That we do moſt highly approve of thoſe Reſolutions and that Addreſs, and that we will Co-operate with the Ulſter and other Volunteer Corps of this Kingdom, in every Conſtitutional Mode of carrying the ſame into Effect.
Reſolved unanimouſly, That the Members of the Houſe of Commons, are the Repreſentatives of, and derive their Power ſolely from the People, and that to Act contrary to the General Senſe of their Conſtituents, would be to deny this Poſition.—
Reſolved unanimouſly, That the Aſſertion, That Power conſtitutes Right, is repugnant to every principal of Law, Religion and Common Senſe.
Reſolved unanimouſly, That nine Delegates from the Corps are requeſted, (three of whom to be a Quorum,) be and are hereby appointed to form a Committee, until the next Meeting, to Act as Occaſion may require, and communicate with the Delegates from the Volunteer Corps, and to deliberate upon the moſt conſtitutional ſpeedy Method of carrying our Reſolutions into Effect.
Major CROKER,
Colonel ORDE,
Colonel [illegible]
Colonel [illegible]
Reſolved, That a Copy of theſe Reſolutions be ſent to the Delegates of his Majeſty's Forces in this City, and that the Printers of the ſeveral Newſpapers in this City be requeſted to inſert the ſame.

Smyth, Colonel
Harte, and Major Burgeſs,
Attention to the Volunteer ſervice of the County.
Reſolved unanimouſly, That the warm
Thanks of this Meeting be given to Major
Croker, for his polite, ſpirited, and maſterly
Conduct in the Chair.
EDWARD CROKER, Chairman.

To be Sold by AUCTION
For READY MONEY,
At PARK HOUSE,
On Monday the 8th Day of April
THE entire Furniture of ſaid Houſe, viz. of four Poſt Bed-ſteads, mounted with English Cotton and Moreen, beſt Feather and curled Hair Matraſſes; a large Aſſortment of the fineſt Engliſh Blankets, with Window Common Carpets; two compleat Sets of China, one of Deſert, with a large Quantity Ornamental and Tea China; ſeveral Sets of Queen's Ware, Kitchen Furniture of all ſorts, and a remarkable fine Jack; a large Mahogany the moſt Faſhionable Plate; alſo a Chaiſe that holds Six, with other Carts, Dung Tumbrils, Ladders, empty Hogſheads, Barrels and Dairy Utenſils; a Quantity of Oats, Barley, der, and many Groſs of empty Bottles, Fowling Pieces; a large Quantity of Glaſs, with a Variety of Articles in the Houſe, too long for an Advertiſement.
N. B. Not any of the Furniture to be moved, but every Article put up to Sale. Coſts will be ready for the Company.
M

SINGLAND BLEACH NEAR
LIMERICK
LINENS, YARN, &c. to be had at the Shop, Well Water-gate, and at the following Places:
Nenagh, by Mr. LEWIS ANDERSON,
Cullen, by Mr. PAUL FRANCIS,
Rathkeal, by Mr. BARTH
Ballingarry, by Mr. JOHN
And at Athcarron, by Mr.
March 28, 1782.

LIMERICK ANNU
25th March
THE General Meeting is adjourned to Tueſday, when it is earneſtly requeſted the Members reſiding in Limerick, or the Vicinity thereof, will attend at the Houſe in order to deliberate upon the Affairs of the Fund, and on other Matters relative to the Society.

Mr. HARGR
RESPECTFULLY
Gentry of this City of his Arrival and honoured with their
His Treatment,
CAL, in the Diſeaſes
and the various M
ſervation and Bea
himſelf, be found that of ANY Perſon
is aware of the pe
frequently Sold
He will Engage him, ſo Harmleſs
as not to be th
quently uſed.
☞ Thoſe M hereof, by at the, and Gun, by chan
ſes. Jan.