

in such cases but still he thought last thing that could have occurred was, that while the present Ministry idea existed in the Cabinet, of America to obedience; he would himself, and he might say the same his colleagues, that it was firmly his to grant unequivocal, unconditional independence to America; and he de- that he would not remain in the Ca- ne minute after he should discover an no there, of bringing America to nee either by force or negotiation: In solution he said the Cabinet was unani- and he trusted, that so convinced all his Majesty's Ministers, of the ne- of giving to America whatever the d'ade, that no change of affairs, no e even of Providence itself, and a severe had yesterday been given, could separate from them.

The House then went into a Committee on the bill for enabling his Majesty to purchase certain lands adjoining to the dock yards and fortifications of Plymouth and Chatham; Mr Hendrick took the chair, and Mr Steele moved for leave to bring up a clause to restrain the owners of the lands in question from erecting buildings on them, before the purchase should be made, or after.

complement of men, according to be established by the War Office. Sir George Brydges Rodney in the Formida- ble for three hours, while pouring def- trusion into the bosom of the enemy, that involved in so thick a cloud of smoke, that he and his ship were invisible to the officers and men of the rest of the Fleet, who during that time, were under the most fearful appre- hensions for his fate. No other signal was made, that ever memorable and glorious day but the general one for action, and that for close action.

The late Noble Marquis of Rockingham was born the 13th of May, 1732. He took his seat in the English Parliament on the de- cease of his father Thomas, the first Marquis of Rockingham, on the 23d of May, 1751 and on July 9th following was appointed Lord Lieutenant and Chief Justiciary of the North and West ridings of the county of York by the late King, to whom he was one of the Lords of the Bedchamber, in which office he was continued by his present Majesty at whose coronation, Sept. 22, 1760, he was Deputy to the Duke of Norfolk, Lord of the Manor of Woking; he presented him with a right hand glove before his receiving the sceptre with the cross from the Archbishop of Canterbury, and afterwards occasionally sup- ported his Majesty's right hand. His Lord- ship also, at the King's was ennobled, and while he received the homage of the Peers spiritual and temporal, as Deputy of the said sceptre with the cross, and which having received, pronounced the words of the homage for all the Marquises He was elected Knight of the Garter, with Earl Temple, on February 4, 1760, and in- stalled on May 6th following.

except Mr. Pitt's every Cividend out— and Keppel resign—every Cividend out— Lord Shelburne first Lord of the Treasury— Secretary Fitzpatrick continues in office. It is said, his Grace the Lord Lieutenant has publicly declared, that he expects to be able to acquaint Parliament before it rises, with the final adjustment of the Portugal business, and that all the manufactures of Ireland will be permitted into Portugal on the same footing as those of Great Britain. Thirteenth Day's Drawing. No. 19507, 24576, 5001 each. No. 34998, 1001. No. 33794, 1924, 501 each. No. 7022, 36676, 26852, 34441, 201 each. Fourteenth Day's Drawing. No. 33,091, 2,266, 34,514, 20,343, 501 each. No. 20,736, 5,055, 38,356, 19,938, 31,557, 39,255, 201 each. DIED. In Great Britain Street, Mrs. Fletcher, relict of the Rev. Dean Fletcher, late Rector of St. Mary's, Dublin. In Long- ford Street, Mr. G. Melvin, Attorney. COUNTRY-NEWS. Colonel, July 8. Yesterday one company of the 77th regiment of foot, (or Athol Highlanders) marched in here from Dublin, to do duty till further orders. Same day, the Caher Union marched through here, on their way to Carrick on fair; and, early this morning the Colonel's independents marched for said place, where they are, with several other volunteer corps, to be reviewed to-morrow by the Right Hon. the Earl of Tyrone. Committed to the county jail the 20th ult. by William Hayes, Esq.—Patrick Colbert charged on oath with having on the night of the 16th ult. feloniously stolen a horse, value 9l. the property of Dennis Burn, of Derryloony in the county of Tipperary, farmer.—The 2th instant, by James Archer Butler, Esq.—John Walsh, charged on oath by Margaret Curigan, with having on the night of the 27th of March last, (assisted by others) feloniously and forcibly taken her out of bed, at the house of John Funnane, of Curedangan in the aforesaid county, and from thence carried her on horseback to the house of Laurence Hays, of Ballyolander in the county of Limerick, where he, contrary to her will, had carnal knowledge of her. Waterford, July 9. Saturday and Sunday the 77th regiment marched in here to do duty. Sunday the different corps of Volunteers of this city, that are to be reviewed at Carrick this day, marched hence for that town.

LIMERICK SUMMER ASSIZES, MUNSTER CIRCUIT. Co. Waterford, at Blackfriars, Monday August 5. City Waterford, at the Tholsel same day. Co. Tipperary at Clonmell, Wednesday 14. Co. Limerick, at St. Francis's Abbey, Wednesday 21. City Limerick, at the Tholsel same day. Co. Kerry, at Tralee, Thursday 29. Co. Cork, at the King's Old Castle, Friday September 6. City of Cork, at the Tholsel, same day. Rt. Hon. Lord Chief Justice Paterson, } Justices. Hon. Mr. Justice Henn, } T. Tisdall, Esq. } Registrars. William Harrison, Esq. } PROCESSES for the Munster Circuit, to be had at the Printer's hercof—Copies gratis. Last Tuesday morning Patrick Mulvey a very honest labouring man, fell from the third story of a house now building in this city, and was killed on the spot. His poor widow, who is in the last month of her pregnancy, and five children, are deprived of their only support, Benefac- tions for their relief will be received by Mrs. Nash, Pennywell, Mrs. Evans, Richard, and Mr. John Russell, near Ball's-bridge. Yesterday 24 able young men, who had entered with the Volunteer Recruiting Parties, for his Majesty's Navy, sailed from the Quay to the Ariel brigate at Fairbert, in which they will immediately proceed to England; they were in the highest spirits, each had being paid his full bounty. Last Friday died at Coole, the day Power, Esq. BIRTH. The Lady of nam talking, Sun and Her, Park, em lenit, 34, 18 out LINEN D. England is ROBERT, Esq. arrived to him a large, shonable printed Co. Limerick and Mullins, a V. ton, and Silk ROSE, M. Dainties of all sorts. As Spot himself, when he had, evit making the best Choice of the use of the Public, N. B. H. CONNA Bricks are of the F. ment of 20. Particulars HE D'ESTERRE

Seamen, for the Service of his Majesty's Navy. The following Resolutions were Unanimously agreed to. RESOLVED That we will Exert our Best Efforts to give Effect to the Vote of the House of Commons, for Raising 20,000 Men for the Service of His Majesty's Navy. RESOLVED That the most Effectual and speedy Mode of Raising Men for the Sea Service, in this County, will be That the High Sheriff shall distribute the Deputations which he has received from Capt. Macbride, among the Commanding Officers of the different Volunteer Corps, who will be pleased to Employ proper Persons to Tent up for Volunteers in their several Districts. RESOLVED That it is absolutely necessary that two Armed Vessels be stationed in the River Shannon, for the Reception of Seamen. RESOLVED That the High Sheriff be requested to signify the same to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant. Signed by Order, JOHN FITZGIBBON, Sheriff. The High Sheriff having quitted the Chair Lord MUSKERRY took it, when it was RESOLVED That the Thanks of this Meeting be given to the HIGH SHERIFF for his very Proper Conduct in the Chair. Ordered that these Resolutions be Printed in the Limerick and Dublin Papers. To the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the COUNTY OF CLARE. SENSIBLE of the Obliging and Zealous Support with which You Honoured me at the Last GENERAL ELECTION, and Conscious of not having since Intentionally Demerited, I flatter myself with a Continuance of Your Protection. I Hope my Declaring myself thus Early, will meet with your Approbation, which I would not presume to do, but that many of my Friends were Engaged at the Last Election, before they knew my Intention of Offering myself a CANDIDATE. If I shall have the Happiness to be thought Worthy of Your Choice, I hope to Demonstrate, that the Utmost Wishes of my Heart will be to REPRESENT YOU FAITHFULLY, to Preserve and Restore to You, Inviolately, the Great Trust you shall have Reposed in me, and by every other Means to Express my Gratitude, Who am, Your most Obedient, And Faithful, Humble Servant, HU DILLON MASSEY, July 7, 1782. THE Undersigned Felton, broke out of the Goal of ENNIS, on the Night of Monday the 8th of July last, and Escaped. John Fleming otherwise John Brown, aged 25 Years, 5 Feet 5 Inches high, hair countermore short black Hair, Pearl on his left Eye, wore Mulberry coloured Cloths. James Finn, otherwise Sullivan, Aged 41 Years, 5 Feet 6 Inches high, short brown firm Hair, few freckles, wore a long blue furrow Coat. Eleanor Murphy otherwise Fitzgerald, Aged 20 Years, slender and pale Faced, much Pock Marked, wore an old blue Cloak. Mary Hogan otherwise Butler, Aged 22 Years, short, square, and Pock Marked, wore a red and white Cotton Gown. These Four were the Gang who were supposed to Rob Mr. Bath, Connel, and are supposed to be born in or about Thurles, County of Tipperary; tho' they sometimes declared themselves Natives of the County of Cork; and at other times of the County of Limerick. Thomas McDonnell, otherwise Keenan aged 32 years, 5 feet 5 inches high, short brown firm hair, 100 one of his upper fore teeth, cast out Face, wore a brown Felt Coat, and a blue Breeches, was supposed to frequent Fairter and Coon, and supposed to be a Native of Bartholomew Mulvihill, aged 25 years, 5 feet 8 inches high, a Graceful looking fellow, wore a blue and white Gown, and a blue and white Gown, and a blue and white Gown. Who were the Gang who were supposed to Rob Mr. Bath, Connel, and are supposed to be born in or about Thurles, County of Tipperary; tho' they sometimes declared themselves Natives of the County of Cork; and at other times of the County of Limerick. Thomas McDonnell, otherwise Keenan aged 32 years, 5 feet 5 inches high, short brown firm hair, 100 one of his upper fore teeth, cast out Face, wore a brown Felt Coat, and a blue Breeches, was supposed to frequent Fairter and Coon, and supposed to be a Native of Bartholomew Mulvihill, aged 25 years, 5 feet 8 inches high, a Graceful looking fellow, wore a blue and white Gown, and a blue and white Gown, and a blue and white Gown.