TO THE FREE ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY OF CLARE,
GENTLEMEN.

An old Servant to the Publick request your Vote and Interest on the next GENE-RAL ELECTION for the COUNTY of CLARE.—For more than two and twenty Years I have had the honour of acting as such in the various Stations of a Member of the HOUSE OF COMMONS, a GRAND JUR-OR, a MAGISTRATE and a COUNTRY GENTLEMAN, resident in the County that sent him into Parliament. If in one of these Characters it shall appear to you that the Cause of Freedom and the Constitution, the Commerce, the Agriculture, the Manufactures, the National Strength, resulting from an affectionate Union of our People, or the impartial administration of Justice among ourselves, may have received any Benefit from my Services, or that in the present Circumstances, and Ten-per of the Time, my Experience, and that Perseverance which I never maintain in the same Principles, may be of any further Advantage, may I hope for a continuance of your Publick Confidence;—a Confidence which my Ancestors have enjoyed, without Abusing, for so many Generations, and which they seem to have inherited by a constant Attention to the Interest of our Country.

A ROBBERY,
And One Hundred Pounds Reward
For the THIEF.

WHEREAS on the Night of the 14th or 15th Inst. some Villain or Villains found Means of getting into my House at Castletown, in my absence, and of conveying several Articles thereout, particularly a large Walnut Box, which, it is imagined, they thought contained Plate or Cash, tho' in fact upon their breaking it open they found nothing but Papers. This is therefore to give Notice, that I will Pay within Six Calendar Months from this Date, One Hundred Pounds to any who will prosecute to Conviction those concerned in said Robbery, and should one concerned Inform against the rest, so as to bring them to condign Punishment, I will apply for his Majesty's Pardon in behalf of said Offender.

WHEREAS an impudent, daring and malicious Forger of my Name to Two Letters, directed from Limerick to Mr.

settle all Matters relative to his Brother's Illness and Funeral, or to that Effect.

To the RIGHT REVEREND

LORD BISHOP of KILLALA

AND

ACHONRY.

The ADDRESS of the
KILLALA VOLUNTEERS.

THE KILLALA VOLUNTEERS, sensible of the great Benefits and Advantages which they enjoy from your Lordship's Presence amongst them, beg leave to approach your Lordship with the highest Sentiments of Respect, Esteem, and Gratitude, and to assure your Lordship, that from your Candour, good Sense, and Publick Spirit, they entertain the fullest Confidence, of finding in your Lordship, a wife, and able Advocate, for the Rights, and Privileges, of this Country; in your publick Capacity, as they behold in your private Life, a pleasing Example of Justice, Moderation, a Love of Peace, and other social Virtues.

Your Lordship's laudable Intentions, and Endeavours, to promote the Trade and Manufacture, and to regulate the Police of our Town, deserve our warmest Acknowledgments, and we shall be happy, to co-operate with,
and assist your Lordship, in every Measure, that may tend to forward so desirable an Undertaking. We are sorry to observe, that Riots, Assaults, Felony, and even Murders, have been formerly Committed here, often with Impunity, and that the most odious Character-ists, by such Crimes, been indiscriminately drawn upon the Inhabitants, to the Prejudice of the Peaceable and well disposed People of the Town.

And we desire to assure your Lordship, in the most positive Manner, that we are determined for the Future, to prevent such Outrages, and at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, to protect the Persons, and Properties, of every Individual, and to preserve Peace and good Order.

And that we shall be ready, on the shortest Notice, to apprehend and bring to Justice, any Person, who shall dare to Commit such detestable Crimes;—As the Principles on which we Act, are founded on Justice, Honour, and Equity, we hope our Actions, will merit your Lordship's Approbation, and Support, which next to the Consciousness of discharging our Duty as we ought, we shall consider our greatest Happiness.

Killala, Signed by Order
JOSEPH COX, Sec.
