The workmen are employed without inter-million in fabricating 10,000 tents. All the companies of Infantry in the Austrian low Countries are augmenting from 100 to 150, and even to 200 men; and those of the Cavalry are also increasing in proportion.

The Magistrates of Rotterdam, Amsterdam, and several towns in Holland, parade the streets after dark, to prevent all riots and tumultuous, which have been long dreaded in consequence of the general distress of trade, which no people so severely feel as the subjects of the United Provinces.

After the disagreements between England and Ireland shall be determined, on the Basis of a reciprocal and permanent friendship, it is pretty certain that the Parliament of the latter kingdom will meet annually for the dispatch of business.

Cork, Feb. 3. Among the various articles that will now become new objects of exportation, Malt Liquor is likely to be a considerable one, therefore, the Brewers should shew a laudable emulation in making it fit for that purpose, and instead of the sweet heavy tasteless liquor that Plebeians admire, and Foreigners detest, brew stout pale well hopped Beer, which will soon establish such a reputation abroad, that the Brewers of Ireland need not be indebted merely to the aid of Parliament, for a profitable sale of their manufacture.

Clonmel, Feb. 3. Friday last, in consequence of the preliminaries of peace being signed, the Clonmel Independents paraded and fired these volleys; the bells were ringing all day; at night there was a general illumination, and other demonstrations of joy.

Saturday last were committed to the county jail, by Richard Bourke, Esq; — John Short, Thomas Short, John Brady, and Jonathan Short; the two former charged with firing at and maiming Jonathan Short; also, with having in their possession implements for coining; and the two latter, with lying in wait to take away the life of the aforesaid Jonathan Short; also, with coining and uttering bad money. — They were transmitted hither from Limerick by detachments of the Limerick Cavalry, Coonagh Rangers, Tipperary Horse, Tipperary Light Infantry, and Cahoy Union.

Married on Thursday last, Mr. James Morton to Miss Elizabeth Airay, daughter of the late Mr. William Airay.

Oitend, Antwerp, and certainly cause a dearth of that article in those places; therefore, with deference to the Gentlemen who compose the Committee, a Citizen submits it to their consideration, "Whether it would not be essential to this undertaking, to have a vessel fitted out, and declare her ready to receive Freight or Passengers, for any part of America they think most likely to procure a return of Corn?" which is said to be there at present in great plenty.

The following persons were apprehended and committed to the goal of this city yesterday; as they are suspected of having bad characters, such persons as have been robbed lately in this neighbourhood, are requested to apply to the Mayor, that the proper methods may be taken to convict them.

John Egan, a notorious offender, between 30 and 40 years old, a strong made man, about 5 feet 7 inches high, has a pearl on his left eye.

James Sullivan, alias Suppie, about 20 years old, 5 feet 5 inches, strong made, but light, fair complexion, light brown hair, and short.
There were found in his possession two Guineas in gold, above one in silver, and a large plain gold ring, marked within side, with the letters J. K. M. date Feb. 8th, 1724. — It is doubtful whether the middle letter on the Ring found with James Sullivan, be an H or K, but there is the greatest reason to suspect it was Stolen and the Initial letters of the Maker's Name are J. M.

John Sullivan about 30 years old, 5 feet 3 inches, well made and smart; black hair, curly and loose, marked with the small pox, cocked nose: there were found in his possession a wrenching crow, and a large ripping chisel.

Mary Clifford, who said she followed John Sullivan lately from Cork, as having lived with him there; between 30 and 40 years old, sandy complexion, and big with Child, and a Pearl on her left Eye.

Roger Sullivan, about 30 years old, 5 feet 7 inches, well made, with brown hair.
Limerick, Jan. 23, 1783.

MARRIED. Yesterday Mr. Hewson Jackson, Lieutenant in the Loyal Limerick Volunteers, to the very amiable Miss Napper, daughter of John Napper, Esq; of this city. — This morning Mr. George Roger, master of a vessel belonging to this port, to Miss Carr, daughter of the late Capt. Carr, an agreeable young Lady, with a pleasing fortune.

The Rev. Deane Hoare, feels himself particularly happy in the opportunity of expressing his thanks to the Public, for their kind attention to the Charity Drum on last Tuesday; and in congratulating them on the certainty of the immediate and great relief which the poor will receive from it, thro' the zeal and well considered measures of the several Gentlemen, both Clergy and Laity, who have undertaken the Distribution of the income arising from it, both at the Rooms, and by additional and private Donations.

STOPPED this Morning on the being Stolen, by Mr. SAMUEL JOHNS, Si-ver-smith, an old TABLE SPOON in a Number of pieces; the Letters C. D. are engraved on the Handle, which was doubled to conceal the Mark. The Man who offered it for Sale, says his Name is THOMAS JENKINS, that he lives at Rathkeal, and that he found the Spoon on the Road this Morning; but as the Account he gave could not be true, and as he contradicted himself, he is in Custody; another who was with him escaped, which the above Person could not do as he is lame, hav-
The right Owner of the Spoon is requested to apply to the MAYOR or Mr. Johns.
