DIED. At Cloonmel on Sunday last Mr. Laurence Corban, senior of Mellisheen, co. Cork.
Waterford, Feb. 28. On Wednesday the Mayor, accompanied by the Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council, proclaimed the cessation of hostilities at the Tholfel, Exchange, and two gates of this city: The different Corps of Volunteers, both horse and foot, appeared under arms, and at the close of each proclamation, fired three volleys.
MARRIED. Mr. Nath. Hammond, of Ross, to Miss King, of Burreishow.
LIMERICK.
His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant has been pleased to appoint George Maunfell, Esq; Collector of Limerick, in the room of Windham Quin, Esq; resigned.
Last Friday and Saturday five Companies of the 11th Regiment arrived here from Cork, to do duty until further orders, and yesterday relieved the Limerick Volunteers on the Main Guard.
Wednesday Eyan Lee, Gent. son of Henry Lee, of Cullin-Connell, in the County of Limerick, Esq; was admitted and sworn an Attorney of his Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Ireland.
Last Thursday Thomas Jefferies, Gent. was admitted and sworn an Attorney of his Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Ireland.
MARRIED. Yesterday Mr. Francis Russell, Clothier, to Miss Mary Craghe, a very agreeable young Lady with a handsome fortune.
DIED. Last Wednesday, at Ennis, in the 83d year of his age, James Mahon, Esq;— Last Friday, at Castle-Jane, in the County of Limerick, in the 73d year of his age, most sincerely regretted by a very numerous and respectable acquaintance, William Ryves, Esq; he was a most tender husband, a most affectionate father, and a sincere friend.
Theatre, Limerick.
BUTLER and WALLIS, in the most respectful Manner, beg leave to inform the Ladies and Gentlemen of Limerick and its Environs, that the NEW THEATRE will in a few Weeks be open'd under their Direction, when they propose to themselves the Honor of endeavouring to Entertain the Public for about two Months, and for that purpose have gone to a very considerable expence in collecting together such a Set of Performers, Wardrobe, Scenery &c. as they flatter themselves will at once shew their respect for and be approv'd of by the generous Inhabitants of a City, ever remarkable for given the most liberal Encouragement where they perceive an Ardent desire to please. In the Course of the Season, will be perform'd the Fair Circassian, Count of Narbonne, Piercy, Which is the Man, Duplicity, Variety, Chapter of Accidents, Agreeable Surprise, Retaliation, Belphegor, St. Patrick's Day, &c. &c. with several other Favourite new Pieces never Acted here, nor will any Care or Expence be spared to render the Theatre convenient and Comfortable.— Upon their unremitting attention to their Duty, BUTLER and WALLIS rest their hopes of Success, the favour and Protection of the Ladies and Gentlemen of Limerick, they shall consider as one of the most fortunate circumstances of their Lives, and are bold to declare that their Words and Actions will always be found to Correspond.
Feb. 18th 1783

quested to present the same.
RESOLVED, That application be made to the several Representatives of the Counties and Towns that are affected by the neglect of this great Branch of the Grand National Canal, praying their Aid and Assistance in support of said Petition and Enquiry.
RESOLVED, That the unanimous Thanks of this Meeting be given to GEO. SMYTH, Esq; Mayor of this City, for his Attendance and very polite and liberal Offer to give the Meeting every Assistance, either in his private or professional Capacity.
RESOLVED, That the Committee will solicit a Subscription, to carry into full execution their Efforts to enforce the Completion of this great National Business, and that a Copy of these Resolutions be sent to every Member of the House of Lords and Commons, and also published in the Limerick Papers, Dublin Evening Post, and Dublin Journal for one Month.
ALEXANDER SHEARER, Esq; having taken the Chair, Resolved that the Thanks of this Meeting be given to Colonel BOURKE for his spirited Attention to this important Business. The Meeting of the Committee adjourned to Thursday next.
By Order of the Meeting,
J. FERRAR, Sec.
