

RESOLVED, (Seven dissenting Corps,) That any Candidate who will not sign the following Test, is unworthy the Support of the Constituents of this Province, and we recommend to every Elector of this Kingdom to carry this Resolution into Effect:—“I, A. B. do solemnly promise and pledge myself to my Country, that I will on all Occasions implicitly obey the Instructions of my Constituents, when assembled for that Purpose, and I declare and affirm on my sacred Word of Honor, that I have used no improper Means, no undue Influence, no Bribery, nor any corrupt Measures to obtain a Seat in Parliament.”

RESOLVED Unanimously, That we admire the virtuous Struggles of the Genevese in the Cause of Liberty, and shall consider their Settlement in this Kingdom honourable and advantageous, as Ireland will ever glory in affording an Asylum to the injured Part of Mankind.

RESOLVED Unanimously, That neither the love of Ease, nor any private Inconvenience, shall induce us to lay down these Arms, which we trust, we have hitherto made Use of with Honor.

RESOLVED Unanimously, That the Thanks of the Committee be given to our worthy Chairman, Colonel BOUSFIELD.

RESOLVED Unanimously, That the Thanks of this Meeting be given to the different Volunteer Corps of the City of Cork, for their extreme polite Attention in mounting Guard, Colonel BAGWELL having quitted the Chair, Sir JAMES COTTER, Bart. in the Chair.

RESOLVED Unanimously, That the Thanks of this Meeting be given to Col. BAGWELL, for the Propriety of his Conduct in the Chair.

RESOLVED Unanimously, That the Thanks of this Meeting be given to Mr. SAMUEL ROWLAND, for his ready Acquiescence in acting (at their Request) as Secretary, in the Absence of Captain NEWSOM, for whose former Services and Attention they consider themselves much indebted.

LIMERICK.

Last Tuesday were deposited in the family vault the remains of William Ryves, late of Cash, Esq. The funeral was attended by the Kilbrann Volunteer Horse and Foot, of which Corps he had been Lieutenant Colonel, who paid him all military honour. The great concourse of the principal Gentlemen of the County of Limerick, and a numerous Tenantry who have lost a most indulgent landlord, by the sincere concern shown upon this occasion gave the most honourable testimony, how much this worthy man was esteemed and beloved in his country.

The Printer received for the Widow and Children of William Tully, and on Saturday is, id. from a person for the same use; and is, id. for the poor weaver, whose property was consumed by fire.

In consequence of Directions from the Worshipful Mayor, the Corporation of Taylors met and appointed John Nunn, Master; John Honan and Patrick Connell, Wardens, for the ensuing year. The Corporations of Cordwainers have appointed Joshua Franklin, Master; and Messrs. Uriel Harte and William Alicote, Wardens.
