man, who is almost past hopes of recovery.
After firing many more shots from both parties, the Volunteers entered the House and appre-headed the whole Gang; Patrick M'Manus and his two Sisters they safely lodged in gaol, and the rest, from the severity of their wounds, it was thought dangerous to remove. Too much praise cannot be given to Colonel Nugent, and this gallant Corps, who, at the peril of their lives, have, on every occasion, supported the law of their country.

This day came on the Election of Mayor and Sheriffs for this City for the ensuing year, and the names of all the resident Burgesses being put in a hat, the five following were drawn as Candidates for the office of Mayor, viz.

- Richard Kellet,
- Henry Puxley,
- William Loycester,
- Richard Pureell, and
- Aylmer Allen, Esqrs.

Whereupon Richard Kellet, Esq; was voted into office. After which John Shaw, and Thomas Waggoner, Esqrs. were elected Sheriffs.

charged with the same offence. 5th, By the Mayor of Cork, David Roche, charged with committing several burglaries and robberies.

Died. Last Friday near the Poor House, Mr. John Walker, formerly of Halfmoonstreet.
Clonmel, July 7. Last Tuesday and Wednesday, the different volunteers corps, intended to be reviewed here, by General Prittie, marched into town, and were received by Colonel Moore, and the Clonmel Independents, with presented arms. On Wednesday, the Cavalry had a field day, and on Thursday were reviewed at Two-mile-bridge, the infantry keeping the lines; on Friday, the infantry were reviewed, the Cavalry keeping the lines. The General arrived in town on Wednesday, attended by his Aid du Camps, Thomas Barton, John Palliser, and Charles William Bury, Esqrs. with a numerous suite. On Saturday and yesterday, the different corps marched out of town, to their respective places of abode.— The review exhibited one of the most brilliant and martial scenes, ever beheld in this county; —and we are concerned that we cannot, at present, gratify our readers, with the full count of it, which we could wish.

LIMERICK.

Yesterday we had a most violent shower of rain attended with very loud claps of thunder and awful flashes of lightning; happily it did not continue long nor have we heard of any accident in consequence thereof.
The County and City Debtors are in a most
