DUBLIN, July 15.

Friday an action was tried in the Court of Exchequer, brought by Mr. Michael Toole gainſt a Mr. Connor, of Cork.—The ſaid was, Mr. Connor, ſome time ago loſt Notes to the amount of upwards of 2000l. and offered a reward of 500l. for the recovery of them. Toole, in conſequence of this, apprehended the thieves, who were afterwards executed, and reſtored to Mr. Connor the whole of the Notes, except a mere trifle; yet he poſitively refuſed to pay any reward. The Court and the Jury thought Mr. Toole entitled to a premium in proportion to the ſum returned, and a verdict was given in favour of the plaintiff for 400l. with coſts.

It is a fact that every veſſel which has left this port for America, has had on board one or more maſter manufacturers from the Earl of Meath's liberty, and the whole body of working ſilk weavers have by public advertiſement, declared their readineſs for a general emigration; ſo that in a ſhort time we ſhall certainly loſe many valuable branches of manufacture, through our ſupineneſs in not having made the ſame proviſion as other nations for our artiſts.

The people of Ireland have every reaſon to flatter themſelves with the hope of the attainment of that object, which includes in itſelf every thing we can deſire or wiſh for—A Reform in the Repreſentation of the People. For in the reſolutions entered into at Lisburn, by 45 Ultonian corps, of purſuing the moſt conſtitutional means of obtaining that great end, leave no room to fear that the venal part of our repreſentative will dare oppoſe themſelves to the deſire and inſtructions of their conſtituents.

It is intimated in ſome of the papers, that Mr. Grattan intends to be very patriotic again in the next Parliament. Heaven knows, that Gentleman has ample need to do ſomething to work himſelf again into notice. It is ſhrewdly ſuſpected, however, that Mr. Grattan will never again get another 50,000l. either from the people or their repreſentatives.

An objection has lately been ſtarted on the other ſide of the water to the annual meeting of our Parliament, inſomuch that Government here have, it is ſaid, received inſtructions to have the ſeſſions in the old way, biennial: the virtue of the people will it is hoped, ſupercede the wretched manœuvres that may be put in practice to bring this matter to bear.

Cork, July 14. We are ſorry to announce from good authority, that the Revolution, of and from North Carolina, Capt. Carpenter, laden with tobacco, who arrived here the 28th of June, in expectation of being able to diſpoſe of his cargo, and to lay out the proceeds thereof in Iriſh manufactures for America, was obliged, much againſt his wiſhes, to ſail from hence for another kingdom, being refuſed liberty to enter his tobacco at the Cuſtom-houſe of Cork, on payment of the ſame duties that are accepted and paid in Dublin; and being afraid that his ſhip would be forcibly boarded by the ſame worthy Revenue Gentlemen (good friends to the poor tradeſmen of this City) who took about 12 hhds. of tobbacco from on board 2 other American ſhips, viz. the Independence, and Gloucester Packet, ſoon after they hoiſted their colours and moored their veſſels at Cove. Had no obſtructions ariſen there would have been above 30000l. expended for the returns of Captain Carpenter's cargo in coarſe woollen cloths, ſtockings, night caps, blankets, garterings, fuſtians, ſhoes, nails, &c. &c. which is now loſt to this City by ill-timed ſeveritles, exerciſed againſt a people who deſire to give Ireland a preference in trade.

The Nancy of North Carolina, Capt. Gladin, with tobacco for Cork, has been detained 8 weeks at Caſtletown, to the ruin of her voyage; had ſhe been ſuffered to proceed to this Port laſt May, and met no obſtruction here, a cargo of our own manufactures would now be ſhipping on board her for Carolina. This may be relied on.
