

actions of both kingdoms, that will fit for many years to come in the cabinet cabinet.

The Hon. Thomas Pakenham, and the Hon.
Hercules Rowley, Esq; are returned for the borough of Limerick.
Sir Richard George, Bt and William Handcock are returned for the borough of Athlone.

The Hon. James Browne and Richard Longfield, Esq; are returned for the borough of Castletbar.

The Right Hon. Sir John Blaquiere, K. B. and Thomas Coghlan, Esq; are returned for the borough of Carlingford.

John Ruxton and Charles Ruxton, Esqrs. are returned for the Borough of Atherdee.

The Right Hon. Lord Edward Fitzgerald, and Thomas Burgh, Esq; are returned for the borough of Athy.

The Right Hon. Lord Henry Fitzgerald and Simon Digby, Esq; are returned for the borough of Kildare.

On Friday last, a fine boy five years of age, belonging to a Publican in Mill-street, having trayed into a tan-yard, while the men were at dinner, fell into one of the pits, on seeing of which, a large dog kept for watching the yard, broke his chain, leapt into the pit, and seizing the child by its coat, (with amazing sagacity) held it above water in his mouth till the men returned to work, who immediately carried the child to its mother, by whom they were liberally rewarded with plenty of Limerick ale.
Our people of fashion are getting fast in the British ton of divorces, no less than three of them, for only one can be now depending here.

At the close of the poll for the county of Limerick, on the 4th inst. the numbers were as follows:

For Edmund Kirwan, Esq;	200
Richard Martin, Esq;	191
Rt Hon Denis Daly,	197
W. P. K. Trench, Esq;	200

CURRAGE MEETING.
September, 1783.

Wednesday, 100 guineas for aged horses, eight 120, three four mile heats.

Mr. Connolly's chief horse, Tennisball, Mr. Hamilton's chestnut horse, Chocolate, Mr. B. Daly's brown horse, Disturber, Mr. B. Daly's, chestnut mare, Mr. Gibson's bay horse, Decoy.

A Gentleman was stopped on Thursday night about the hour of twelve o'clock, at the corner of Cullinstreet and Redmond's-hill, by three foot pads, one armed with a long knife; they robbed him of his cash, shoes, buckles, hat, and got clear off with their booty.—
The Gentleman was obliged to walk home about his shoes.

Tuesday night, an old and noted offender of the name of Kutledge, who had long absented himself from this city, in consequence of being guilty of many robberies, was apprehended and lodged in the Black Dog prison.

MARRIED. At Waterford Mr. John Mc.
Henry, coachmaker, to Miss Stanilrect, of Limerick. On Sunday last, Mr. King, carpenter, to Mrs. Berthon, of that city.—A few days ago, in the Co. Wexford, Nathaniel Cookman, Esq; to Miss Rogers, daughter of Colonel Rogers.—Mr. Edward Madden, of Newswell, Thomas-street, merchant, to Miss Forde, of Limerick's-court nunnery.—Mr. Farrell, of cork-hill, greener to Miss Nichaell, of the Merchants alley, an amiable young lady.

DIED. At Waterford Thomas Farrell, Esq; formerly an eminent merchant. On Thursday last Mrs. Moore, wife of James Moore, of that city, Esq.—In Bull-fane, Mr.
Thomas Reynolds, coach-maker.

Wexford, September 4. Yesterday our Affairs ended, which proved a maiden one, and the only matter of consequence was the trial of Mess. John and Robert Burkitt, on an indignity on the chalking act, at the prosecution of Mr. Henry Richards; but the prosecutor having failed in point of proof to support the charge, the jury acquitted the prisoners about leaving the box.

The following paragraph was copied from the last Packet.

Bath, August 28. At Whichuch in Hants, a boy of electric fire entered the gateway of the White Hart Inn, and passing into the kitchen, where the landlord his wife, a maid-servant, a gentleman, a passenger in the Salisbury diligence were, with the driver thereof; the whole company, the last man excepted, were struck down by the lightning, and remained deprived of sense and motion for a considerable time.— The Gentleman was particularly affected, he fell in the instant of the shock forced from the ground above two feet, and fell apparently dead; but by timely assistance, he was soon restored for the Limerick Circuit, arrived here from Wexford, and opened their respective commissions.

DIED. A few days ago, in Kilkallen, near Thomastown, aged 21, Mr Patrick Roth, son of John Roth, Esq.

Cork, September 4. At the close of the Poll this day, for Knights of the Shire, to represent this County in Parliament, the numbers stood thus:

For James Bernard, Esq;	260
Right Hon. Lord Kingsborough,	251
Richard Townsend Esq;	258
Sir John Conway Colthurst, Bart.	76

DIED. A few days ago, suddenly, at Passage, Mrs. Parsons, relict of the late Adam Parsons, of Pembroke-street, Esq.

LIMERICK.
At the final close of the Poll last Friday, for Knights of the Shire, for the County of Limerick, the numbers were,

For Hon. Hugh Massy,	710
Sir Henry Hartstonge, Bart.	656
John Fitzgibbon, Esq;	581

Whereupon the High-Sheriff declared the Hon. Hugh Massy and Sir Henry Hartstonge, Bart. duly Elected.

Immediately after the Sheriff had declared the successful Candidates, they were chaired through the Town, attended by a numerous retinue of Independent Freeholders; and at night there was a general Illumination in the City.

To the PRINTER of the LIMERICK CHRONICLE
SIR

NOW the hurry of Election matters is pretty much over, I beg leave through your very useful Paper to remind the Public of what calls for instant Attention. I need not here dwell on the wretched Situation of our Jail, how inconvenient, filthy, and improperly adapted for the purposes intended; how shocking to humanity, to have but one Room to confine both Felons and Debtors of both Sexes; the impropriety of its being in the centre of the most thickly inhabited part of Limerick. All these facts are well known, therefore shall only request the Gentlemen of the County and City of Limerick, will take it into Consideration before next Assizes, and in the mean time, any information relative to so praiseworthy an Object, will be thankfully received at your Office.

MARRIED. A few days ago in Dublin, Mr William Alexander, late of this city, but now of Meath-street, to Miss Elizabeth Gough, of Cole-alley, both of the people called Quakers.

DIED. Last Friday at Mrs. Massey's house in Dominick street, Francis Wheeler, Esq; of Ballyvior in the County of Tipperary, a Gentleman possessed of every necessary qualification, to constitute a truly honest good Man.

WANTED a GOVERNESS for Young Children. Application to be made to the Printer. Sep. 8, 1783.

HAVING been Ordered to close my HEARTH-MONEY and CARRIAGE DUTY ACCOUNTS before the 20th of next Month, I earnestly request of such Persons as owe any Hearth-Money or Carriage Duty, in my Collection, to be prepared to pay me forthwith, otherwise I must (to prevent the loss of my employment) be under the very disagreeable necessity of Enforcing Payment, without Distinction or Compliment to any Person whatsoever.
Limerick, PHILIP WALSH, ill. Sept. 1783. H. Col of Limerick Walk.

MR. HARGROVE,
acquaints the Ladies and Gentlemen who Inquired for him during his Absence, that he is Returned; and to prevent Disappointments, gives Notice, that he purposes leaving Town for a Fortnight or Three Weeks, immediately after the Assizes of Limerick—The Printer hereof is constantly supplied with his Powder and Lotion, for the Teeth and Gums, with proper Brushes and Directions for using them. Sept. 8, 1783.

and as it has ever been the Will of my Heart, so it shall be the Labour of my Life, faithfully and zealously to Discharge in great Important Trust, You have so Honourably Delegated to, GENTLEMEN, Your most Obedient,
Faithful and Obedient Servant,
HUGH MASSY.

To the INDEPENDENT ELECTORS of the COUNTY of LIMERICK,
GENTLEMEN,

NO Words sufficiently strong present themselves to me, to express the feelings of my Heart.

Created by you, I can have no interest but yours, the Ties by which I am bound to you, and the line of Conduct which I have hitherto observed, will I hope by you be deemed sufficient securities, that no private Ambition, or Corrupt Motive shall ever Bias my Actions; but that my most Sincere and unremitting Efforts, shall be directed towards the Securing from every the smallest Encroachment our newly acquired Constitution, the Extension of our Commerce, and the better regulation of our internal Government.

Have the Honor to be,
GENTLEMEN,
With the utmost Gratitude and Respect,
Your most grateful
And Devoted Servant,
H. HARTSTONGE

RESOLVED, That a Subscription be entered into, for the purpose of Carrying our Grievances in respect to the Exactions of the Toll Gatherers, Custom Gatherers, and Weigh-masters of the City, before Parliament, or to the Court above, as we may be advised by Council, and that a Committee be appointed to Receive, and Disburse the same.

RESOLVED unanimously, that the Thanks of this Meeting be given to LANT HILL, Esq; for his Spirited and Upright Conduct on this Occasion, and for promoting this Meeting.

RESOLVED, That this Meeting be adjourned to Thursday the fourth of September next, at the Navigation-House, next the Lock-Mills, at the Hour of Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, and that as many of the Gentlemen of the Neighbouring Counties, as wish to promote the above Purpose, are requested to attend precisely at that Hour, as a Committee will be then appointed, for carrying into Effect, such Measures as may be judged Advisable.

DAN WIDENHAM, Chairman.
RESOLVED, The Chairman having left the Chair, that the Thanks of this Meeting be given to him, for his proper conduct in the Chair.

RESOLVED, that these Resolutions be published in the Limerick Newspapers.
