It was not until three o'clock this afternoon...
 ...that I had the first information of the infamous...
 ...and outrageous mutiny of part of the Penn...
 ...sylvania troops: it was then I received your...
 ...Excellency's letter of the 11th by Express, your...
 ...agreeable to the request contained in it, I im...
 ...mediately ordered three complete Regiments of...
 ...Infantry, and a detachment of Artillery, to...
 ...be put in motion as soon as possible; this corps...
 ...will consist of upwards of 1500 effective. As...
 ...all the troops who composed this gallant army...
 ...as well those who were furloughed, as those...
 ...who remain in service, are men of tried fe...
 ...lity, I could not have occasion to make any...
 ...choice of corps; and I have only a regret...
 ...that there exists a necessity, that they should be...
 ...employed on so disagreeable a service. I dare...
 ...say however, they will on this and all other...
 ...occasions, perform their duty as brave and...
 ...faithful soldiers...
 ...While I suffer most poignant distress in ob...
 ...serving that a handful of men, contemptible...
 ...in numbers, and equally so in point of service...
 ...of the veteran troops (from the Southward have...
 ...not been seduced by their example) and who...
 ...are not worthy to be called soldiers, should...
 ...they disgrace themselves as the Pennsylvania...
 ...mutineers have done, by insulting the sove...
 ...reign authority of the United States and that...
 ...of their own. I feel an expressible satisfaction...
 ...that this behaviour cannot stain the name of...
 ...the American soldiery, it cannot be imputable...
 ...to, or reflect dishonour on the army at large...
 ...but on the contrary, it will, by the striking...
 ...contrast it exhibits, hold up to public view, the...
 ...other troops in the most advantageous point of...
 ...light...
 ...Upon taking all the circumstances into con...
 ...sideration, I cannot sufficiently express my...
 ...surprise and indignation, at the arrogance, the...
 ...folly and wickedness of the mutineers; nor...
 ...can I sufficiently admire the fidelity, the bra...
 ...very, and the patriotism, which must for ever...
 ...distinguish the unsullied character of the other...
 ...troops of our army, for when we consider that...
 ...these Pennsylvania levies who had now mutinied...
 ...are recruits and soldiers of a day, who have...
 ...not born the heat and burden of the war, and...
 ...who can have in reality but few hardships to...
 ...recollect that those soldiers who have lately...
 ...been furloughed from this army, are the vete...
 ...rans, who have patiently endured hunger, na...
 ...kedness and cold, who have suffered and bled...
 ...without a murmur, and who with perfect good...
 ...order have retired to their homes, without...
 ...the settlement of their accounts, or a farthing...
 ...of money in their pockets; we shall be as...
 ...much astonished at the virtue of the latter, as...
 ...we are struck with horror and detestation at...
 ...the proceeding of the former; and every en...
 ...dured mind, without indulging ill-grounded pre...
 ...judices, will undoubtedly make the proper dis...
