

before the House, their titles read, and ordered to lie upon the table for the perusal of the Members.

The Speech of his Grace the Lord Lieutenant being read, in compliance with the order of the day.

Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer moved, that a supply be granted to his Majesty, and that the House do to-morrow take that supply into consideration.

The same gentleman presented a petition from the cotton manufacturers, praying the assistance of Parliament for the encouragement of their trade.

The order for the call of the House was adjourned to Monday February 7.

Hon. Mr. Hewitt presented a petition from the cotton manufacturers of the town of Belfast, praying encouragement.

Sir J. Parnell moved for leave to bring in a bill for the encouragement of the cotton manufacture of Ireland. This he said he wished to effect by internal regulations only.

Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer seconded the motion.

The Rt. Hon. L. Gardiner observed, that he had intended to have brought the consideration of the woollen manufacture before the House upon the broadest basis, such as would promise every relief that could be desired; and wished not to be precluded from it by any other member.

Sir J. Parnell replied, that he did not intend or wish to interfere with the Rt. Hon. Gentleman's intention, he had already mentioned that his bill went no further than to internal regulations; which, tho' he wished particularly to benefit the Queen's County, yet he would extend to the whole kingdom in general—one great point of regulation was the establishment of Public Markets for the sale of the cloths.—It was those that so greatly served the Linen branch, and he doubted not would be of equal advantages to that of the woollen. In the progress of the bill, he should be very glad of the assistance of the Rt. Hon. Member or any other Gentleman in the House.

Mr. Gardiner said, he had the woollen manufacture so much at heart, that he would gladly assist in any thing that could serve it, though it did not go as far as he could wish. For that end, he could wish to introduce a staple, and establish a proper number of wool staplers, to fix the standard and quality.

Leave was given to bring in the bill, and Sir John Parnell and Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer, ordered to prepare the same.

Mr. Secretary of State, (Hutchinson) presented a petition from the workers of wire in the City of Cork, complaining of the act passed last session, laying a restraining duty on foreign wire.

The Right Hon. Mr. Gardiner said, he had a petition in his hand of a quite contrary nature. It was from the wool-combers, scribblers, and manufacturers of Dublin; they all agreed that German Wire was not so good for their use as that made in Ireland, which tho' at present a little dearer is infinitely better.

Both petitions were received.

Mr. Forbes moved for accounts of all persons who had been put on the civil or military establishments of this kingdom, from October 1777, to the present time.—Ordered accordingly.

Mr. Secretary Orde acquainted the House, that he had intended to have stated as to-morrow the commercial regulations proposed between Great Britain and Ireland, but on looking over the materials, he found some papers were necessary, which he could not immediately procure; he should therefore beg the indulgence of the House for a few days, and the order was adjourned till Saturday next.

Lord Charles Fitzgerald gave notice that he intended soon to bring the business of Attachments before the House, to receive a solemn discussion. He did not intend to use any surprise, and therefore threw out the idea now, that Gentlemen may turn it in their minds, and should give proper and sufficient notice of the day when the motion shall be made.

Mr. Corry moved that a committee be appointed to inquire into the state of the Newry inland Navigation.—Ordered accordingly.

Mr. Wm. Todd Jones, moved that the name of Henry Joy be discharged from the late order of the House for his attendance, with others, on the trial of the controverted election for the town of Belfast.

Mr. Hewitt agreed to this motion, and it was carried accordingly.

Adjourned till to-morrow.

Galway, Jan. 31. Last Friday in the great storm, the sloop Hurricane, Capt. Gates, from Jamaica bound to Liverpool, with Rum, and Pimento, put in here with the entire loss of her sails and rigging.

Same day, on the above vessel making signals of distress off the island of Aron, two boats put off to her assistance, and one of them having crowded too much sail, a heavy sea broke over her, and instantly went down, whereby two of the crew were drowned, and the other two were fortunately picked up by the other Boat then making for the vessel.

Last Saturday evening a Gentleman's servant of this town with a large Portmanteau, returning with his master from Dublin, and the servant remaining about a mile behind, was shortly after stop on the high road, between Athenry and Oranmore by two fellows, who pulled him off his horse, and robbed him of what cash he had about him, not content with that, they attempted to take off the Portmanteau, when all of a sudden the horse taking fright galloped off (leaving the servant in possession of the robbers) till he was stop on the road near Frenchfort by some people then going the road, who returned to meet the rider, whom they apprehended was killed, upon which the villains made off with great precipitation.

A few days ago died at Partry, in the county of Mayo, Joseph Lynch, Esq.—At Lidican, the Widow Lynch.

DON PEDRO we never saw done so well as by M—r A—c—k.—Our idea of Spanish Comeliness was not a little heightened, by the blooming Olivia, (Sir V—c H—t) whose Performance was very good; his Dress was superb and decorated with taste.—Mr. G—y's, Friar John and Father Luke, were most excellent: In the latter his Dress was much more Characteristic than on the First Night.—Mr. C—h, if possible, was improved in Darby—The K—t of G—n, made the most of Bagatelle: A pretty occasional Song, we believe, of his own Composition, Sung very well and quite in Character, was received with merited Applause.—In Lorenzo, Captain A—e, exceeded the most sanguine expectations, even of those who saw him in Pierre-Webster was justly admired in the Part; but we are bold to say sur Lorenzo would suffer considerably by a Comparison; his Voice and Look in "Ab! jure a Pair," excited in a crowded and discerning Audience, a transport of Admiration, not to be described.—In short, partiality could not have imaged an excellence which he did not really possess.

Seized yesterday, by Mr. James Russell, 75 loaves and bricks of Bread, which by order of the Worshipful Mayor, was distributed to proper objects.
