

As was ordered on a motion of Sir B. ... quire, "that the proper Officer lay before the House, an account of all the presentments in the last twelve months by the grand juries of the county, and of the county of the city of Dublin, for the last twelve months, for the repairs of coach ways."

Tuesday judgment was pronounced in the King's Bench against Mr. Rourke, for defamation, in the case of Alderman James, when the Court thought proper to sentence him to six months imprisonment, to pay a fine of one hundred pounds, and procure sureties for future good conduct.

Letters patent have passed the Great Seal appointing Warden Flood, Esq; Dr. of Laws, and member of Parliament for the borough of Balinglass, Judge of his Majesty's High Court of Admiralty of Ireland.

A motion of thanks to the Volunteers of Ireland would on Tuesday last have been moved for by Mr. Flood, if a severe fit of the gout had not prevented him from coming down to the House; we hope this indisposition will be of short duration, so that this country may enjoy, in full vigour, the matchless abilities of its great defender.

With the utmost concern, we have to announce to the Public, the Death of our worthy and much respected Representative in Parliament, Thomas Smyth, Esq;—he died at Bordeaux, (France) the 14th of January last, after a lingering illness, which he bore with manly fortitude, and Christian resignation.—He was a Gentleman of the strictest Honor and most amiable Virtues—the voice of Distress never reached his Ears in vain; he scorned to deceive his friend, or suffer his Tongue to speak a language foreign to his Heart.—The fondest Brother, Son, &c. the kindest Master, and the sincerest Friend.—The inexpressible grief of his long afflicted Family, the undissembled sorrow of his Servants and numerous Dependants, and the silent tears of his Friends—which were every person that was honor'd with his acquaintance—prove how justly he merited this Character.—We forbear mentioning the different Offices of Magistracy, which he filled with Honor and Justice, being fresh in the memory of his fellow Citizens:—

- * For in the grave distinctions are forgot,
- * And with our bones our worldly honors rot;
- * Yet enter'd on a glorious Heavenly Rest,
- * The good Man's Memory is ever blest.

We hope to be excused by our Correspondents for the omission of several Advertisements and Paragraphs, sent late for this day's publication, which shall have conspicuous places in our next.

On Friday Night a very crowded and polite audience have, for the third time, been indebted to our Theatrical Society for the most pure, and rational Entertainment that a sensible Mind can receive.
