DUBLIN, March 22. Late last night a mellenger arrived from London, with ALL the Money Bills.

In confequence of an official letter from Mr. Orde, it has been intimated to all the friends of Administration, that their attendance without any excuse, is expected in the House of Commons on Monday the 11th of April. as on that day, a bufiness of the utmost importance will be brought forward.

By a Gentleman that left Paris late on Thurfday night laft, and arrived here this morning at eight o'clock, we are informed that no foreign Prints have been admitted into any of their coffee-houses, for eight days before he lest it. and that double militia is drawn from every village in the kingdom, and magazines erecting in the frontier towns of Flanders, which has rofe all kind of provisions to an enormous price particularly forrage.

By a letter received this morning from Luxemburg, we learn that 42,000 men had palled through that dukedom, for the Low Countries; that eight regiments more are within a day's march, and that from two to three hundred waggons and cannon pais through daily.

Yesterday forgeries on the National Bank to the amount of 5,000l. were discovered. Three persons have absconded on this account.

On Thursday next his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant will go in the usual state to the House of Peers, and give the Royal affent to the Money Bills, and fuch others as will be ready on that day.

We are still in the dark, as to the fate of the commercial propositions in the British House of Commons. There are feveral reasons however, to think they will be carried through by a large majority; one of which is, that a few days ago, a noble Lord here (Earl of Mornington) who has a feat in the English Commons, wrote over to Mr. Pitt to acquaint him, that if his prefence was necessary to assist in supporting the propositions he would immediately fet off for London, and has just received for answer, that the friends of the measure are fufficiently ftrong without giving his Lordthip the trouble of a journey for the purpose.

So-the tax on advertisements is aumgented Gill further-a penny stamp on every sheet of paper, and is, od, on every ten lines of advertifements !- But thefe News Printers are a troublesome set, and must be silenced some way or other .- They publish country meetings, and Volunteer meetings, and Parliamentary intelligence-they are ever talking of a Parliamentary Reform, and of liberty and all that-they tell tales about certain great men. nay, they fometimes differer the evil deeds of certain great men !- therefore down with the Prels.

The inhabitants of Green-street, Little Britain-firect, No. we hear, have petitioned government, to remove the place of execution from the front of the New Prifon; which petition, it is faid, will be complied with, and, in future, the criminals will be executed at Jonable Terms. the rere of fuld building.

A further respite, until the 10th of April next, is granted to Thomas Kean; convicted at the last commission, for the murder of John Cancaunen in the Tenter Fields.

Velterday morning, a Charity Sermon was presched in Mary's abbey Meeting-house, by the Rev. Mr. M'Dowel; when a collection of agl, was made, for the Support of 20 indi-

Cafey, Efq; James Hartney, for feloniously taking from a fishannger thirteen shillings,
