John Wolfe moved, "That a committee be appointed to enquire into the state of all the Turnpikes in the kingdom."—Ordered.
Monday April 25.
Mr. Hartley moved for leave to bring in a bill to amend the several acts for the better curing and preparing of provisions in this kingdom, and preventing combinations.—Leave granted, and Mr. Hartley, Alderman Warren, and Mr. Recorder ordered to prepare the same
The House then adjourned to Tuesday.
Councl, April 25. Early last Thursday morning a number of fellows, armed with guns and other weapons broke open an house and dreadfully beat two men, tenants to Mr. Perry of Woodrooffe, making them promise to quit their farms and leave the country. A reward is offered for discovery of them.
For some time past, the peace of this country hath been so frequently disturbed by nocturnal villains, breaking open houses, carrying off young women, taking horses, bridles, and saddles from industrious people, and committing other violences, that some speedy and vigorous measures are become necessary for the security of the public peace.
Died. At Ennis, Last Tuesday, Dominick Power, Esq;
L I M E R I C K.
Last night Died, in Nenagh, sincerely and deservedly lamented by all his acquaintance, Mr. James Frith, Postmaster of said Town.
Died. Yesterday morning at her house in the Square, most deservedly and universally lamented, Mrs. Friend, wife of Benjamin Friend, Esq;—The Panegyrist could not wish for a fairer field for Eulogy than this Lady's Character. Prudence and Privacy were her Almoners, when real Want or Infirmity applied, her Purse and Closet were open to the Claim.—Her Cordials and Medicines were famous; for which the Wretch may crawl with confidence to her Door. True Merit only was attractive of her Friendship and its blackest Contrast scarcely of her Hate. Humanity and the most tender Affection marked the hours of her domestic Happiness as politeness, candour and information did those of public Enjoyment.—In short she was possessed of the fairest assemblage of Virtues that could endear woman to a Family, Dependents, Friends, Neighbours and Society in general.
To the hasty Pen and (we believe) the feeling Heart of a Correspondent, are we indebted for the following STANZAS on this melancholy Occasion.
How dismally breaks this deep knell on the Ear!
Announcing some Mortal has ceas'd to be so—
Too just my misgiving, full Heart, is thy Fear!
Too surely thou point'st to the Mansion of Woe!
Lo! the blubbing Rabble bewail as they pass;
The Poor, Old and Sickly bedew the sad Door!
Grieve on, wretched Group; you have reason alas!
The fall'n Arabella for life to deplore.
Oh! let me too mix in the Heart-rending scene,
Each swelling Emotion now plenteously flow!
The Torrent of Sorrow shou'd suffer no mean;
What Expression of Sorrow can equal this Woe?
Ah! Death, thou insatiate, rude Felon, behold
The Mother, Wife, Daughter, the Sister,
