Vice George Talbot.

27th. Lewis Bruce, Gent. Enſign, vice Jame Grant.

37th, Angus Cameron, Gent. Enſign, vice Robert Bowker.—Lieutenant Bernard Mac Namara, from half-pay in the 72d regt. Lieut in Capt. Courtenay's independent company of Invalids at Cheſter, vice John Sherwin.

LONDON, Sept. 24.

According to letters from Paris of very recent date, an order had juſt been given for five additional regiments of foot to march immediately into Flanders, where they are to be cantoned during the winter. It was ſaid that the unſettled ſtate of affairs between the Dutch and the Emperor had occaſioned this order.

A letter from Paris, ſays, that there is not a doubt entertained of Monſ. Neckar's having a ſituation in the Royal Treaſury of France, ſuiting the abilities of that able financier: He is ſaid to have been lately oftener than once cloſetted with his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty, and invited to ſeveral petit ſoupers given by the Queen.

The article of the Definitive Treaty which has been broken by the Marquis de Sai, in defiance of the law of nations, is the tenth, which runs verbatim thus:—"The Moſt Chriſtian King, on his part, guarantees to the King of Great Britain, the poſſeſſion of Fort James and of the River Gambia."—Prob!—Punica Fides!

On the arrival of the Biſhop of Connecticut at his reſidence at New London, the gentlemen of the Preſbyterian congregation were ſo obliging as to offer him the uſe of their meeting-houſe, in which he preached to very numerous audiences; the Epiſcopal Church had been burned to the ground in the courſe of the late calamitous war, but the parſonage houſe eſcaped, and it is now the reſidence of Biſhop Seabury.

DUBLIN, Oct. 1.

A letter from London by the laſt packet, written by a Rt. Hon. Perſon of this kingdom to his friend here, has theſe words, "Pitt knows that a war is inevitable; it is an event he has foreſeen, but never wiſhed. He is not afraid of it, having a fund in petto that will annually produce without much diſtreſs on the public, 10,000,000l. extra for carrying it on.

An order is daily expected at the War-office, for completing all the regiments of infantry in this kingdom to the full war eſtabliſhment. The plans for the new fortifications on the rivers Shannon and Lee, that were approved of laſt war, and were to have been put in execution this year, we are informed, are entirely laid aſide.

Soon as Mr. Orde arrives, the ſouthern tour of the Duke and Ducheſs of Rutland will commence—the route is firſt to Limerick, where they propoſe to ſpend ſome days with the Biſhop—afterwards to Killarney, where Lord Kenmare ſet off on Tueſday to prepare for the reception of his noble viſitors—thence to Cork, and Lord Shannon's at Caſtlemartyr—and to Roſtellan, Lord Inchiquin's fine ſeat, which commands the whole bay of Cork, and one of the grandeſt proſpects in the Kingdom. They return by Waterford, and ſpend ſome days at Narrowmores, with Lord Tyrone, and time with Lord Clifden, at Gowran——The tour it is ſuppoſed, will engage the whole of October.

None of our Viceroys made a tour through Ireland ſince Lord Townſend.

Monday laſt the Prince of Wales, John Heard, ſailed for Holyhead, with Sir William Glendowe Newcomen, Bart, and his Highneſs the Prince of Poland.

Yeſterday the new Lord Mayor and Sheriffs went to the Caſtle, and took the uſual oaths of office before the Lord Lieutenant; after which they repaired to the Manſion-houſe, where the Lord Mayor gave a moſt ſuperb entertainment to the Duke of Rutland, and many of the without any very conſiderable damage, and the neighbourhood thereby relieved from the great danger of the flames extending to the ſurrounding buildings.

EXCHANGE.

Oct. 1.—Dublin on London, 7¼

Belfaſt, Sept. 27. On Friday laſt came on to be tried at Carrickfergus, an action commenced by Mr. Andrew Hyndman, of this town, merchant, againſt Mr. George Cunningham, Revenue Officer and Surveyor of Holywood, to recover damages for ſeizure and detention of two packages, containing white fuſtians and printed cottons, returned from America, the property of ſaid Hyndman.—Theſe packages had been landed out of the ſhip Pacha, in conſequence of a warrant from the Surveyor of this port for that purpoſe, and at the time were in the actual care of a Revenue Officer, who was taking them to the Cuſtom-houſe in order to be viewed and admitted to entry. Mr. Cunningham was informed that they were going to the King's ſtores to be inſpected, but he perſiſted in the ſeizure on a ſuppoſition that they contained foreign goods, and they were detained for nearly nine months.

Mr. Cunningham reſted his defence on the illegality of the landing warrant, as it ſhould not, ſtrictly ſpeaking, have been granted without an affidavit and bill of view; however it appearing that this was not the ground of ſeizure, the court left it to the jury to determine whether Mr. C. had any probable cauſe of ſuſpicion to proceed on. When it appearing that the ſeizure was ill-founded, they brought in a verdict for the plaintiff and twenty guineas damages; a ſum which though inadequate to Mr. Hyndman's loſs, the goods by the detention having ſunk about 10 per cent. in value, yet ſerves to ſhew the inſtimable value of the trial by jury, which, whilſt it is the beſt bulwark of our liberty, affords the moſt effectual ſecurity againſt ſtretches of power in officers of the Crown.

Cork, Sept. 29. Wedneſday evening laſt, between 4 and 5 o'clock, two young ſharpers, one about 14, wearing whitiſh bad cloaths, and the other twelve years of age, who wore ragged brown clothes, and barefoot, went into a ſhop on the flaggs, on pretence of buying ſome article, and while the ſhopkeeper turned about for it, one of them uncovered a ſmall deſk, that lay on the counter, which happened to be then unlocked, and ſtole thereout, a canvas bag, containing about ten guineas in gold and ſilver. It is ſuppoſed that theſe young ſophiſters belong to a numerous gang

Elizabeth, Brown, Glaſgow, ſtaves; Mary-Ann, Nevin, Halifax, goods; Fenon, Peal, Liverpool, rock-ſalt, earthen-ware, &c. eight colliers with coal; Robert, Woodham, Londonderry, hemp and iron——Sailed, Paca, Caulfield, Maryland tanned hides, &c Union, Hazzard, New-York, merchants goods.

LIMERICK.

This day Chriſt. Knight, Eſq; was ſworn Mayor, Joſeph Sargent and Arthur Vincent, Eſq; Sheriffs, Geo. Smyth, Eſq; Recorder, and Robert Hallam, Eſq; Town Clerk for the enſuing year.

An honeſt and active Magiſtrate has it in his power to render many and great ſervices to the good people of ſuch a large City as Limerick, and it is certain the preſent Mayor will do ſo. It is in the higheſt degree abſurd and childiſh to ſay the act has expired for lighting and paving the City; as well may we ſay the act has expired to prevent people from breaking their legs, arms, &c. Let the Pariſhioners of each Pariſh in veſtry applot money for the Lamps and levy it, let the honeſt Magiſtrate do his duty with advantage to the Public and Credit to himſelf, and we preſume the Judges of the Court of King's Bench will not call the Veſtry or the Magiſtrate to an account for endeavouring to ſave the Lives of his Majeſty's ſubjects.

Married. Laſt Friday at Killaloe, by the Rt. Rev. Lord Biſhop of that Dioceſe, Richard Bowerman, Eſq; to Miſs Davis, daughter of Mr. George Davis, Apothecary, an agreeable and accompliſhed young Lady with a handſome fortune.

Died. Laſt Saturday in the 36th year of his age, Captain Shlagel of the 21ſt or Royal North Britiſh Fuzileers, quartered in this City; he poſſeſſed all the fine feelings of humanity, and bore an illneſs, which he knew muſt ſoon terminate his Life, with manly fortitude; he came over from Germany in the ſuite of her preſent Majeſty; and is univerſally regretted by his friends and acquaintance, particularly by the regiment to which he belonged. His remains will be interred with military Honors to morrow Evening.

THE Mayor, Recorder and the other Gentlemen of the different Pariſhes of the City of Limerick, who made a Collection for the ſufferers by the Fire in the Pariſh of St. John's on Saturday the 24th of July laſt, think it incumbent on them to lay the under ſtate of the different Collections, with the manner of diſpoſing of the Money before the Publick.
