We are exceedingly happy to find the present chief Magistrate of this city has laid down a line of conduct for himself, which he is determined to pursue, with unremitting Vigilance and Alacrity; and which will be highly beneficial to the inhabitants of this populous city; it has been often confessed and lamented, that our bread is not the best, our meat most shamefully dressed; and as unadulterated provisions are objects of the utmost consequence to the health of every family, it is hoped self preservation will divert every honest citizen of that mistaken humanity, which has so often prevented them from bringing offenders to justice.
 It is a Duty greatly incumbent on every Man to assist the Mayor, in removing all Nuisances to be found in this city, which have so long injured their health, and endangered their lives, not to mention the heavy loss they have sustained by every one necessary of life being forestalled before it comes to market.

We can from undoubted authority assure the publick, that the Theatrical Society intend forming early this Season.—The astonishing powers of our Original Macbrath, who is daily expected to this kingdom, joined to the unrivalled humour of our Dairby, and the confessedly great abilities of our Jaffer and Bug and Tail, with a strong reinforcement of Theatrical troops, insure next winter to be the gayest that this town ever experienced. This intelligence will, we hope, prove equally acceptable to the lovers of the Drama, and to many miserable objects whose distressed situations will be relieved by the humanity of those Gentlemen.

Yesterday evening, as a Constable, with a party of the army, were escorting four prisoners to the County Gaol, (who were sentenced at the Quarter Sessions held at Killinan, to be whipped at Bruff, for rioting at the fair of Knocklong,) a numerous mob pursued the guard and attempted a rescue, within a mile this side of Bruff, when the guard were under the disagreeable necessity of firing, to protect themselves and secure their prisoners, by which one Man was killed on the spot, and several others dangerously wounded.

We hear that Mr. Bernard is returned to this country from Paris, after completing himself in the polite science of Dancing, &c. under the instruction of Monsieur Gordel, and the celebrated Monsieur Vestris.
