[3p] Oct. 31. 1785.

By the Right Worshipful Sir CHRISTOPHER KNIGHT, Mayor of Limerick.

WHEREAS the Inhabitants of this City are very much imposed on by the present method of buying Turf, as they are quite ignorant what quantity a boat contains; the Mayor therefore gives this Public notice that the Boatmen or Owners must have their respective Boats immediately measured, and the number of Statute Kells each boat contains shall be fixed in legible figures on the Mast; the Statute Kell measures 4 feet in length, 2 feet in breadth, and 2 feet in height. The Mayor insists that all Corn brought into this City, shall be weighed at the Public Scales; which will be much to the advantage of city and country, as it will prevent many abuses. As the Irish town Scavengers have declined, the Mayor will receive Proposals from any Person or Persons desirous to contract for cleaning that part of the City for the present year. N. B. There will be a General Meeting of the Citizens at the Exchange on Wednesday next at 12 o'Clock.

Dated this 27th November, 1785.
