LIMERICK.

On Monday the Schinist was apprehended by Theo. Pepper, Esq; at Mote, near Nenagh, a Man who calls himself Thomas Ryan, for having in his possession a Mare, Bridle, and Saddle, which since appears to have been stolen from Mr. Bouchier, of the Co. Clare.—He was transmitted to the Goal of Ennis last Monday.

Last Monday morning, at the hour of three o'clock, Mr. John O'Brien, High Constable, apprehended Michael Molooy, a noted offender, against whom there are a number of Indictments, and lodged him in the City Gaol.

Last Saturday Mr. Byrne detected a woman of the name of Dillon, selling rape cake in powder, for pepper. The Public should be extremely cautious in buying tea and other articles from hawkers, as they are commonly adulterated with sloe leaves and other trash.

Married. At Ennis, Mr. Brew Cox, to Miss Williams, daughter of the late Mr. Matt. Williams, of said town, an agreeable young lady with a handsome fortune.—This morning, Mr. Andrew Vokes, to Miss Wilson, daughter to Mr. Wilson, of Ballenecurra, an agreeable young Lady, with a large fortune.

Died. Last Tuesday, Miss Barrington, daughter to the late Mr. Mathew Barrington.—Yesterday, Mr. Mathew Story, Tanner, a man of very fair character, much regretted by his friends and acquaintance.
