By a private letter from London, received by the last packet, we are informed, that the youth "backneyed in the ways of men" had nearly escaped being killed by a pistol being fired into his carriage on his return from dining with the Lord Mayor, and that he is daily in imminent danger of his life; a guard has been granted him for his protection, which regularly amounts every day at his house.

The fire that broke out on Thursday morning, in Thomas-street, was occasioned by a man who lived in a back house and made bed-mats, who coming home drunk late at night, and falling asleep, the candle, which he was too careless to extinguish, communicated with the materials for his work which set the whole on fire immediately in a blaze, and this unfortunate person was burnt to ashes - happily no other lives were lost.

Cork, Dec. 5. Saturday arrived His Majesty's Cutter, Advice, Lieutenant Williams, from a cruise.

Died. Last week, in Bandon Road, Mr. Florence O'Leary, jun. a young Gentleman universally regretted.

5. Wind S. W. No ship arrived. - Sailed, His Majesty's Cutter, Advice, Williams, on a cruise; Alicia, Revenue Cutter, Townsend, Branty.

Clonmel, Dec. 5. We are happy to inform our readers, that two of the ruffians, concerned in the attack, on the Rev. William Ryan, have been apprehended and lodged in jail. - The publick is particularly indebted to our worthy High Sheriff, to M. Jacob, Esq; to Captain Long, and the gentlemen who accompanied them, for the spirit, activity, and zeal for justice, which they manifested on this occasion. The accidental escape of Michael Hogan, a notorious white-boy, is much to be lamented, however he will in all likelihood soon share the fate of his companions, as a reward of fifty pounds, is offered for apprehending him, or giving information by which he may be apprehended.

Committed to our county jail, the 1st inst. by the Worshipful Thomas Gordon, Esq; Mayor. - Thomas Molloy, charged on oath with having, about the hours of two and three o'clock, on the morning of the 1st of October last, with several other persons, to the number of twenty, and upwards, covered with white shirts, and armed with guns, pitchforks, and other weapons, broke into the dwelling house of the Rev. William Ryan, of Mullinacully, near Mullinabone, in this county, and thereout feloniously taking, and carrying away, fire arms, &c. &c. He is also, in like manner, charged with dragging the said Mr. Ryan, out of his house, as aforesaid, without any other covering than his shirt, and cruelly beating, and cutting him, putting him in terror of his life, tendering an oath, to him, and committing several other outrages, on him and his family. - Same day, Thomas Cody, charged on oath, with being one of the party who committed the above outrage.

Tralee, Dec. 3. In consequence of the recent outrages committed by a number of delinquent offenders, we are informed, that the youth "backneyed in the ways of men" had nearly escaped being killed by a pistol being fired into his carriage on his return from dining with the Lord Mayor, and that he is daily in imminent danger of his life; a guard has been granted him for his protection, which regularly amounts every day at his house.

The fire that broke out on Thursday morning, in Thomas-street, was occasioned by a man who lived in a back house and made bed-mats, who coming home drunk late at night, and falling asleep, the candle, which he was too careless to extinguish, communicated with the materials for his work which set the whole on fire immediately in a blaze, and this unfortunate person was burnt to ashes - happily no other lives were lost.

Last Friday the Helena and Mary, Hegarty, for Jamaica, ran on some rocks near Crarloe; the cargo is saved, but it is thought the vessel will be lost.

Yesterday, Denis Holohan a pilot, drank too freely of Whiskey and died immediately; the many fatal accidents that have arisen from drinking spirits ought to be a sufficient caution to people, not to use them too freely.

A Post Chaise and Able Horses, with a Saddle Horse, is ready to set out for Dublin any day until Thursday next, from John Halloran's, outside Thomond Gate.
