Extract of a Letter from St. Vincent, Jan. 22.

"The harmony of Grenada is changed into diſcord and anarchy, which prevail in every walk and ſphere of life, from the higheſt magiſtrate to the loweſt, and inſomuch, that a Governor's arrival is prayed for by all ſober and well-diſpoſed people; we of this iſland are trembling for fear of bad effects from the Caribbees, who moſt certainly communicate with the rebels of Dominica.

"Thoſe rebels amount to near 530 men, well ſupplied with guns and ammunition and money. They offer dollars and French money for the proviſions they purchaſe; every attempt made by the military have failed of any ſucceſs againſt them. The French ſupply them with the neceſſary implements of war. The Unicorn man of war has ſeized a veſſel in Prince Rupert's Bay in Dominica, which cleared out from Guadaloupe, and was loaded with ammunition. The French emiſſaries at work, and the Engliſh inattention to the ſituation of theſe ceded iſlands, will be fatal when leaſt expected."

By the laſt accounts from India, we hear that Colonel Lamont, of the 73d regiment, in a fit of inſanity, flung himſelf over board from a ſhip in Calcutta river, and was drowned.

Early this morning the Right Hon. the Attorney General left town, in order to attend the aſſizes, on Monday next, at Caſtlebar, and to conduct the proſecutions againſt the perſons charged with the late attrocious murders in the county of Mayo.

The Duke of Leinſter, Lords Mountmorres, Charlemont, Carhampton, Farnham, Mountgarret, Defert, and Powerſcourt, have entered their proteſt againſt the Police-Bill.

The operation of the Police-Bill will not take place until September next; the intermediate time will be employed in preparing the houſes of correction, conſtructing the juſtices offices, and other neceſſary arrangements.

An accurate and ready note taker, is we hear employed by the judges to attend the trial of Mr. Fitzgerald at Caſtlebar, in order that the ſame may be faithfully reported to the public.

An order is ſaid is arrived for the embarkation of two regiments of foot at Cork, for the Weſt-Indies.

Laſt Tueſday the two centinels who were on duty at Kilmainham goal on the day the felons eſcaped, received as a puniſhment for their inattention, 500 laſhes each in the Royal Square at the Barracks. Five of the runaways are now ſecured in their former habitation, one of them came in yeſterday of his own accord, after having enliſted with a recruiting party, in company with which he landed in this city the day before. His name is Carmichael, and he was under ſentence of tranſportation.

Died. Laſt night, the Wife of Mr. William Moroney, oppoſite the Parade.

†*† The St. PATRICK's CHASE are to meet on Monday the 27th inſt. a Sporting Doe to be Enlarged at Mr. Tuthill's Paddock, at half after Ten.
