mother took her infant to her bosom, and being at that time engaged as a wet nurse to some neighbouring gentleman, immediately offered the breast to her own infant; when, after a few trials, it was able to imbibe some nourishment. This woman was remarked for often using the old saying, "Daughter arise, go to thy daughter, for your daughter's daughter has a daughter," but added she, "happy to have seen the day arrive, when this last daughter can bless me, with the sight of her son."— She was remarkably healthy, and possessed a vigorous appetite until about a month before her death; and the gentleman of the parish wherein she resided, whose beneficence is ever remarkable, gave her, for some years past, a double allowance. The fifth generation, from herself, produced the unfortunate Howell, who, several years ago, was found murdered in a sack, near Stoney-batter, at which time he was not less than 25 years of age.

Yesterday John Matthews, who keeps a public house, at Duleake in the county of Meath, and Patrick Gogarty a farmer, who lives near the hill of Bellewstown, were both committed to Prison on very strong suspicion of being concerned in the late robberies of the North mails.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Cork, March 6. By letters in town from Tallow, we are informed of a horrid murder being committed there last Monday, on a child ten years old. The particular circumstances have not yet transpired with sufficient authority to lay them before the public.

Ennis, March 6. On Monday last was committed to our goal, by Boyle Vandeleur, Esq; Michael Halloran, charged upon the oath of John Halloran, with having feloniously taken one cow, value 40s. and upwards, the property of said John Halloran, from off the lands of Rahbeg, in this county, for which he was arrested near Nenagh, in the county of Tipperary.

LIMERICK.

It is with great concern we announce the death of Counsellor Emmett in York-street last Friday, who was in this city a few days ago, and travelled to Dublin with such expedition, that it occasioned his death.

Copy of a letter, received by the Postmaster of this City, last Saturday, from John Lees, Esq; of the General Post-office.

"In consequence of the late frequent Robberies of the Mails, the Postmasters General have, with the approbation of his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, determined upon having a Guard to accompany the Mails through the Night Stages, and to be continued as a permanent establishment; I am therefore to desire you will wait upon the Chief Magistrate of the City of Limerick, and acquaint him thereof, and also that you will make it known to the
