

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint Capt. Dirom of the 52d regt. to be Dep. Adjutant General in the East Indies.—Right Hon. Lord Strathaven, from half pay, to be Major in the 35th foot, in the room of Major Chester.—Major James Stewart (Lieut. Col. by brevet,) to be Lieut. Col. in the 68th foot, in the room of Colonel Ferguson, deceased.

Several gentlemen in the revenue, in consequence of the investigation of a certain personage, it is thought, will be deprived of their commissions.

All is bustle at the Castle—consternation is visible in every department of the Ordnance!

When it is considered in how warm a manner Mr. Sec. Fitzherbert took up in the last sessions, the great business of a national system of education, his safe return to this country cannot [but (be deemed by) the public a circumstance of extensive consequence to the kingdom's welfare; especially as he will have good time before the commencement of the next sessions thoroughly to digest the system he has pledged himself to bring forward. It is said, the Secretary has been sedulously employed on this important business, since the short interval of his arrival, by examining the body of matter and evidence, respecting the donations to, and the present state of the diocesan schools of Ireland; which will certainly tend to throw great light on an institution, which by fraudulent arts and improper practices, has hitherto been attended with a very humble share of that good, utility and consequence, for which diocesan schools were originally established.

It is an undoubted fact, that one of the men hanged on Saturday last, had been brought to life, and was seen by several who perfectly knew him, walking about the streets both yesterday and the day before.

BIRTH. At Stephen's-green, the lady of Edmond O'Callaghan, Esq; of a daughter.

DIED. At Grenville, in the county of Cavan, Carrol Thornton, Esq. much lamented.—In Grafton-street, Gilbert King Esq; senior, late of Charlestown, county Roscommon, most deservedly lamented.—Captain Chaloner, of Cottage, county Meath.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Kilkenny, August 30. Wednesday evening a dispute arose at a public house in Irishtown, between Thomas Shee, a carman, and ———— Horseman, one of the police sub-constables of the district of Durrow; after some altercation a scuffle ensued, when Horseman stabbed his opponent in the side, with his bayonet, in so dreadful a manner that his life is despaired of. The offender was instantly secured, and lodged in the city gaol.

Cork, August 28 On Tuesday morning last about six o'clock, some bailiffs went on the lands of Carigrohanebeg, within four miles of this city, to distrain for tythes under the Compensation Bill, and having distrained the cattle of one John Mahony, and others, a riotous mob assembled, armed with sticks, stones, and long poles with sharp weapons fixed on the ends of them, beat off the said bailiffs rescued part of said cattle, and very dangerously wounded Mr. Charles O'Sullivan, at whose suit the said cattle were distrained.

Ennis, Aug. 28. Last Saturday Mr. C. P. ————, surveyor of Excise, assisted by Messrs. ———— and Johnston, gaugers, discovered a private tobacco manufactory in the town of ————, wherein they seized all the utensils, and a quantity of tobacco in process of manufacture, which they safely lodged in the ————.

Last Saturday Henry Clark, Thomas Croak, and Hugh M'Lean were committed to Jail, for robbing a countryman at Newcastle of some money and promissory notes. Clark was one of the men who broke out of our city jail last November, he was apprehended in Nenagh for a felony and sent to Clonmel, where he was tried and acquitted last assizes; he was then ordered to be transmitted to Limerick, and was rescued from the army near Pallasgreen.— Thus it will appear, that a man who is viciously inclined is seldom reclaimed, but regardless of any warning, he goes on from crime to crime, until he falls a victim to the offended laws of his country.

DIED. A few days ago, at Rahenduff, Queen's County, Mrs. Anne Maunfell, wife of John Maunfell, Esq; Council at Law, a lady universally regretted by an extensive acquaintance.
