

yond the reach of assistance, he took the opportunity of debauching her:—the transaction was attended with circumstances of great violence. Examinations were in consequence sworn before Garret English, Esq;—who was so incensed at the villain's brutality, that he went in person, brought him from Lord Trimblestown's, and lodged him in Kilmainham.—During the confinement of the prisoner, the relations of the parties had a meeting—and it was agreed upon, as the best recompence in his power to make, that he should marry the girl. The Rev. Mr. Moran was prevailed upon to perform the ceremony—and it is for that he stands indicted.

Wednesday the Rev. Mr. Moran was put to the bar at Kilmainham, when the Judge said as he was a regular lawyer he could not be found guilty; but as his conduct was highly culpable, would lay him a heavy rule of bail.

A Caution.

AS I am informed that NICHOLAS TUBBS, my Husband, is on Treaty of selling an Interest in the Lands of Kilturanebegg, in the County of Clare, which he has no just pretension to for several Years past, the said Lands being under Settlement, and owing such Arrears, as must prevent him or his Assigns from ever receiving any Rent thereout, and as the Interest he was formerly intitled to said Lands devolves on his lawful Children after his death, I think it a Duty incumbent on me thus to acquaint the Public of the circumstances of said Lands, lest they should be imposed on, and to apprise them that the lawful Heirs of said Nicholas Tubbs will certainly assert their Claim to any Part of their Property, which the said Tubbs has heretofore or may hereafter dispose of.
Oct. 13. SUSANNA TUBBS.
