A Caution.

AS I am informed that NICHOLAS TUBBS, my Husband, is on Treaty of selling an Interest in the Lands of Killuranebegg, in the County of Clare, which he has no just pretension to for several Years past, the said Lands being under Settlement, and owing such Arrears, as must prevent him or his Assigns from ever receiving any Rent thereout, and as the Interest he was formerly intitled to in said Lands devolves on his lawful Children after his death, I think it a Duty incumbent on me thus to acquaint the Public of the circumstances of said Lands, lest they should be imposed on, and to apprise them that the lawful Heirs of said Nicholas Tubbs will certainly assert their Claim to any Part of their Property, which the said Tubbs has heretofore or may hereafter dispose of.
 Oct. 13. SUSANNA TUBBS.

HAVING seen an Advertisement in the Newspaper, signed Susanna Tubbs, cautioning the Public from dealing with me for my Interest in the Lands of Killurane, as the same was under Settlement as she alleged:—It therefore, now, becomes necessary for me to declare, that the same is False and Groundless, and was calculated merely by her eldest Son and herself, with an intent to injure me; my Title and Interest in said Lands having commenced many Years after my Marriage, except a yearly Rent Charge of 50l. a year for ever, which I had on all the Lands of Killurane, prior to my Marriage, and which my Title Deeds will convince any Person of, who has a desire of knowing the truth:—I shant take the trouble of Answering any other of her False or Groundless Advertisements, but will warrant whatever I do.
NICHOLAS TUBBS.
