

getting rid of the truth is, that the demands by the present possessor are exorbitant—that the Minister thinks it more prudent to wait the contingency of events, and the issue of a few legal terms. Another account says, that the negotiation will be pending, and that as yesterday it was finally determined—the general opinion is, that the present Chancellor will return and reside as before.

Our highly revered Chancellor has continued to read the report of his resignation with that found silence which he was wont to do on other similar occasions.

Those Members in both Houses of Parliament, who have ever been deemed the best friends of this country, are said to have it in their view to come seriously forward, at the ensuing session, with a proper and equal plan of commercial arrangement between the two countries.

The Dorset yacht, Sir Alexander Schomberg, commander, which sailed on Tuesday for Milford, is to bring over Lord and Lady Portefcuc, who are coming on a three months visit to the Marquis and Marchioness of Buckingham.

The exportations lately to France exhibit a most pleasing change in the produce of this country. Before it was ever known that we supplied with ought but butter and beef—this has been much on the decline for some time past, but happily relieved by a very large export of flour, and this not confined to the canal, but general through all the out-ports.

At the commencement of the American war, Ireland did not raise grain sufficient for the maintenance of her people.—A few years, with various regulations, have wrought a wonderful change, now there is not only grain in abundance for the inhabitants, but Ireland exporting to most countries of Europe.

The Faculty have given it as their opinion, that long fasting, and drinking weak punch, is the principal cause of the number of dropsies which is so prevalent in this kingdom.

The Marchioness of Buckingham, from various causes, (The Duke of Rutland's dying here, as also a fine youth, whom they brought her as companion to Lord Temple, &c.) has taken such a dislike to the Lodge in the park, that she never means to enter the doors of it, and has chosen General Pitt's apartments at the Royal Hospital, to lie in at.

The Commissioners will begin the cutting off the Tickets into the wheels A and B on Friday the 31st inst. at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, agreeable to act of Parliament, preparatory to the Drawing of the Lottery, which will commence on Wednesday the 12th day of November next, at the Theatre in Capel-street. It is known by experience, that those who drink nothing but Cyder, are stronger, more healthy, and look better than those who drink wine; of which Lord Bacon gives a remarkable instance of eight old people, some were near and others above an hundred, who during their whole lives drank nothing but cyder, and were so vigorous, that they danced and jumped about like young men.

A few days since, John Davis, Patrick Hayes, Michael Welsh, John Comyn, Patrick Crehane, and Mary Spelesly, recanted from the Church of Rome, and were admitted into the established Church, by the Rev. Arthur Brew, at Kilrush, county Clare.

Last Monday was committed by James Langton, Esq; to the county gaol, John Casey, alias Enright, of Newcastle, county Limerick, and Patrick Murphy, charged with burglariously breaking open, on the night of the 16th inst. the dwelling-house of Denis Quish, of Parsonstown, in this county, with six other villains, whose faces were blackened, and after trying and otherwise shockingly treating the family, robbed the house of several articles and six guineas in gold, part of the goods were found on Casey.—Yesterday, by Robert Hewson, Esq; to the said gaol, Mary M'Inerney, Patrick Linton, John Molony, Alice Molony, Margaret Linton, and Catherine Kelly, charged with robbing Mrs. Margaret Flanagan, of Rathkeal, of one hundred guineas, part of which were found on said Mary M'Inerney.

Married. This morning, Mr. Thomas Rumley, of Kilrush, to the amiable Miss Barrett, daughter of the late John Barrett, Esq; one of the Aldermen of this city, with a pleasing fortune.

Died. Last Tuesday, Mrs. Gubbins, relict of Lancelot Gubbins, of Maidtown, Esq;—she possessed, in an eminent degree, every amiable quality that could adorn her sex. To her children she was a most affectionate parent; to the friendless a constant friend; to the poor a generous benefactress; which renders her death universally regretted by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance.—Some day, Mr. Mathew O'Brien, an eminent School-Master, and an honest man.
