

Cork, Oct. 23. We are happy to find that on Tuesday morning last, before day, Gibbs Ross, Esq; with a party of the cavalry, apprehended Denis Mulcahy, Timothy Morony, Edmond Murphy, David Murphy and James Moroney, five of the persons against whom positive informations are lodged, for being concerned in White Boy outrages in the parish of Donbolouge, on Friday night last.

Kilkenny, Oct. 22. On Sunday last, the Right Hon. Lord Viscount Athelbrook having completed his twenty-first year, it was observed by the town and neighbourhood of Castle-Dar-row as a day of public rejoicing, in which old and young, rich and poor, gentle and simple, all joined in their congratulations to their much loved landlord, and testified their ardent affection by every innocent indulgence of mirth and festivity. About noon the Castle-Dar-row Volunteers paraded before the Castle, and fired a feu de joie, which clearly evinced that they have not let their arms rust in "these piping times of peace." The volunteers, all the respectable and decent tenantry and inhabitants, were elegantly entertained at dinner by his Lordship. In the evening an ox, stuffed with a turkey, a duck, and six dozen loaves, was roasted whole, and given to the populace, with twelve barrels of ale to wash it down. After spending the day and evening in the utmost harmony and good humour, every man retired to his home, pleased and satisfied, without the least quarrel or disturbance.

Married. Thomas Mac Laughlin, Esq; of Francis-street, Dublin, to the amiable Miss Butler, daughter of Theobald Butler, Esq; of Inch, co. Tipperary.

Tralee, Oct. 23. On the 19th inst. Thomas Cuzner, Esq; commander of the Mason revenue cruiser, and Mathew M'Donough, Esq; Surveyor of Excise in Killarney, discovered, between this town and Dingle, a private malt-house, where they seized a large quantity of malt, which they conveyed safe to his Majesty's stores in this town.

Monday last John Bateman, Esq's, g. h. Tautrum, beat Rowland Bateman, jun. Esq's. br. g. Paddy, three mile heats, for 100 guineas.
