Kilkenny, Nov. 12. On Monday a board of Aldermen, and common-councilmen was held at the Tholfel, when Walter Butler, Esq; Sir John Blunden, bart. lieutenant-colonel Shee, Christopher Hunt, and John Wilson, Esqrs. were elected common-councilmen of this city.

Cork, Nov. 13. Committed to the county Goal the 12th inst. by Brodrick Chinnery, Esq; John Walsh Brodrick, alias Capt. Barry; a notorious Captain of a gang of robbers and highwaymen, and who fled from justice from the City after being concerned in a burglary and robbery in the house of Mrs. Fry, on the Quay — By Edward Deane Freeman, Esq; John Heiffernan, charged that with a number of White Boys, did assemble about the dwelling house of Mr. John Quinlan, and with seizing and conveying him blindfolded to an hole which had been dug and prepared with instruments of torture, and with throwing said Quinlan, into said hole, and with casting earth and rubbish on him while lying in said hole, whereby his life was in great danger.

Married. This morning, — Bennett, of the county of Limerick, Esq; to Miss Bennett, daughter to the Rev. Mr. Bennett, of George's-street. — Armiger Sealy, Esq; to Miss Bunbury.

Died. Yesterday at Upton, near Bandon, a short illness, Theobald Payne, Esq; D. of a fever contracted by attending a person in this city last week.

... life from torturing pain, the noblest virtues ornament his mind, Benevolent, engaging, just, and kind. May gracious Heaven prolong his valu'd life, To bless his subjects and his much-lov'd wife; Let guardian angels on his steps attend, And peace and pleasure prove his constant friend

* * * The Carriers not having arrived from Dublin to the Stamp-office with Stamp Paper, we are under the necessity of printing part of this day's publication unstamped, which shall be accounted for with the Stamp-officer.

Yesterday, John Downs, Esq; Inspector of Excise, assisted by Mr. Francis Hayes, L. C. Officer, and a detachment from the 1st Royals, brought in here and lodged in his Majesty's stores, above 100 barrels of malt, which were seized at Waterpark, in the county Tipperary. The unremitting attention of Mr. Downs to the security of his Majesty's revenue, justly merits the thanks of every fair trader.

Committed. Last Saturday by Walter Widenham, Esq; to the City Gaol, Sally Culligan, a notorious shop lifter and pick pocket, for stealing out of Mr. James Russell's shop on the Assembly-quay, a jug and tea-pot, value 1s. 6d.

Married. Last Saturday, Mr. Clary, of Roscrea, to the agreeable and accomplished Miss Meade, daughter to Mr. Thomas Meade. — Yesterday, Mr. — O'Hara, Esq; to the very agreeable Miss Lynch, daughter of Mr. James Lynch, of Mungret street, Hardware Merchant.

Died. Last Thursday, in Dublin, John Philip Roche, Esq; of this City, in whom were united every social virtue. The goodness and benevolence of his heart could only be equalled by the politeness and gentleness of his manners. His public conduct was marked with the utmost probity, with the liberal knowledge of a merchant; while his private life exhibited the dutiful son, the tender husband, and all the affection of a parent for a numerous family who are too young to know their unspeakable loss; but those who knew him best, will long lament his early death; yesterday his remains arrived from Dublin, and were interred at Drombanny church, in the liberties of this city. — Yesterday, at his house in Francis-street, Francis Swayne, Esq; deservedly regretted by a numerous and respectable family, and every one who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.
