A Philosophical Invention for producing Light and Fire—unknown to the most useful Discoveries the present Age. It may be justly called the friendly every Person from the Peer to the Peasant—serviceable in the dreary Hours of the night—in cases of attack—sudden illness—every species of devastation practised of Mankind.—In fine, its uses are so many and so various, that it would swell beyond the limits of an Advertisement. Let but the Student—the Physician—the Parent—the Family—let every one whose Health or Life is at stake—let all those who are in the enjoyment of human affairs may have in their power, consider for a moment what a blessing and satisfaction it must be to reflect that you have a command—without any apprehension of danger—the discovery of the danger that inevitably attends the use of Lighted Candles—and they will pronounce it the most useful, well as the most useful of the Times.

Sold at GEORGE HENCHY'S, At Mary-street, in elegant portable Cases, by the same Person who has also imported a large Parcel of Genuine DRUGS, that could be had in Limerick he will Sell (as usual) at the lowest Prices.—His heartfelt Thanks to a generous Public Support, and it shall be his constant Study to improve the same.
