Mathew Lane Stanlan, Esq; of Rathkeale is appointed Coast Surveyor in the West of the County of Limerick in the room of Vigors Thomas, Esq; who resigns.
Every patriotic Irishman wishes Sir Edward Newenham success in his contest for the county of Dublin; he who always stood forward the warm Friend of the Liberty of the Press, and the constitutional rights of his Country; he who was deprived of a lucrative Employment, because he would not permit his tongue to belie the dictates of his Heart.
Saturday morning about two o'clock, the North West mail was robbed at a place called Ten-mile Bush, within two miles of Dunshaughlin, Dublin, by three men, who tied the post boy, and carried off the mare he rode, with the entire of the mail, containing the following bags from Dublin:—Navan, Kells, Oldcastle, Virginia Cavan, Killifandra, Belterbet, Ballyconoul, Lisnaskea, Enniskillen, Ballyshannon, Killybegs, Nairn, and Rutland.
Last Sunday, John Pilkington, having quitted the Romish Communion, was legally admitted into the established Church by the Rev. Arthur Brew, at Kiltroth, County Clare.
Yesterday Bryan M'Mahon, Esq; with a humanity that does credit to his feelings, purchased a considerable quantity of potatoes, and a quarter of beef, which he distributed among the county prisoners; an example that ought to be copied at this season, by every person who is blessed with the means of alleviating human misery.
Yesterday arrived the Maria Catherine, Gateclift, master, from Dram, with timber and deals; who fell in with the Adventure, Thompson, from Liverpool, last from Loughswilly, bound to Londonderry, eighty leagues from land, in great distress, and had just time to take the Captain and crew on board, though Captain Gateclift was himself at an allowance, and had not above eight gallons of fresh water.
A parcel of Stamp Paper having arrived at the Stamp-Office last Tuesday, when part of this paper was at Press, the Duty of those unstamp will be paid for, and the Public will be regularly supplied with Stamps in future.
One hundred and four of the Parishioners of St. Mary's, most gratefully acknowledge the receipt of 3 Breads, and 104 welye-penny loaves of Bread; a donation from the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Limerick, thro' the hands of the Rev. Mr. Hoare.
The Co. and City Debtors and Prisoners (68 in number) acknowledge the receipt of 40s. thro' the hands of the Rev. Mr. Hoare, being an Annual Bequest of the late Mrs. Alice Craven, together with 16s. for the Poor of St. Mary's Parish; 16s. for St. John's, and 8s. for St. Munchin's.
The poor Room-keepers of St. Munchin's Parish, to the number of sixty-two, return their hearty Thanks to the Lord Bishop of Limerick, for the beef and bread he was pleased to send them this Christmas.
DIED. A few days ago, at his seat at Millbrook, near Nenagh, the Wife of Richard Hawkshaw, Esq; sincerely lamented by an extensive acquaintance.—Last Saturday in Ennis, deservedly regretted, Anthony Casey, Esq; one of the oldest Magistrates in the County of Clare.—Yesterday, in Mary Street, Mr. Francis Creaghe, merchant.
