COUNTRY NEWS.

Londonderry, March 31. Messrs. Cox and Thompson, having made every necessary examination concerning the depth and bed of the river between the quays, where the ferry-boats ply, and having given it as their decided opinion, That a wooden Bridge can be erected there. On Thursday last, they presented to the corporation, in common council assembled, an estimate of the expense which amounts to only 10,000l. British money. The Corporation, with a spirit and promptitude, which should ever endear them to their fellow-citizens, unanimously resolved to accept the estimate, and to complete the plan.
